Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Pray For Our Troops
"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need." We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

A great big THANKS for your generosity at Thanksgiving and our Christmas Campaign with Toys for Tots and Seniors.

We were able to fund 70 families this year to purchase Thanksgiving dinners. The Toys and Senior gifts went a very long way to help make the Christmas season warmer and brighter for the community.

We are so grateful for our parishioners!

We are thankful for your consistent stewardship.

THIS WEEKEND'S
SECOND COLLECTION:

STEWARDSHIP GIFTS

"...they fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh..."

- Matthew 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, as Stewards, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

Mary Mother of God

The feast day of Mary, Mother of God is one the most ancient celebrations in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. While it occurs on the civil calendar as January 1st and it might seem that we are celebrating Mary as Mother of God on the first day of the year, the actual reason for its placement is that this feast comes on the last day of the Octave of Christmas – that is, eight days after Christmas.

For many of us, Christmas ends at Midnight on December 25th. But according to ancient custom, important events were celebrated for more than one day. In fact, Christmas is really celebrated for eight days. That means every one of those days is to be understood as part of the same celebration of Christmas. (This is done also at Easter and other important feasts as well). While our contemporary culture has a great, festive build up which ends on Christmas, our ancestors began their celebration of Christmas at Midnight Mass and then continued it for eight days, thus the term “octave” (from the Latin word “octavus” meaning “eighth” – incidentally that’s why October is called such, because it was the eighth month of the ancient Roman calendar).

It is perfectly fitting that the last day of the octave of Christmas honors the divine motherhood of Mary. The special bond between Christ and his mother came into existence at the Annunciation and continues to this very day. The Church celebrates this bond constantly in her liturgical celebrations, including the way the dates of the feast days themselves are chosen.

So, as we continue to celebrate the feast of Christmas, we should rejoice heartily on this day when we celebrate Mary as Mother of God for it reveals further to us the immeasurable love that the infinite and almighty God does have, to allow himself to be contained in the womb of one of his creatures so that he could come to save us....all out of love, love for us.

A Christmas Thank You!

I want to extend my sincerest thanks to the great group of parishioners who, once again, made all of our churches both look and sound so wonderful on Christmas. A lot of people put in a lot of time and effort to make sure that we celebrated the coming of the Prince of Peace into the world in such a beautiful way.

Without question, during our Christmas worship we gave great glory and honor to God (as we always try to do) and I am sure that the Lord was well pleased (as He always is with all our genuine effort). So, once again I say a giant and heartfelt “THANK YOU” to all who made Christmas so special here at Holy Angels Parish and ask God’s special blessing upon you all.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

JANUARY 3 — EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Reading I: Isaiah 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

Reading II: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

The Gospel: Matthew 2: 1-2

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Reading I: Isaiah 60: 1-6

God radiates light inside the city, so darkness surrenders, so to speak, in Jerusalem. All the nations come together to rebuild the city, including people associated with Abraham from the Arabian peninsula.

Reading II: Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6

Paul's great insight into the mystery of Christ is that He wills the Gentile nations to be full participants in the Church. Its very foundation is based on Christ and the prophets and especially the Apostles.

The Gospel: Matthew 2: 1-2

The magi were a group who did things like interpret dreams, or work in astrology and magic. Later tradition made them kings. Above all they represent the Gentile world coming to Christ. Their gifts have meaning, so gold represents kingship; incense divinity and myrrh suffering. Or they can be interpreted Virtue, Prayer, and Suffering.

EGIVING...Sharing your weekly offerings with Holy Angels has never been easier! Electronic Giving has been available for a number of years and is successfully being used by many parishioners. To find the link to Parish Giving, go to our Parish website: www.holyangelsnj.org, and sign up on the secure website, then manage your account anytime at www.parishgiving.org.

Once signed-up, you can use your checking account or credit card to set up customized recurring donations based on the amount and timing of giving that best suits your needs.

Thank You for your active participation in Holy Angels Parish!

FAMILY MEMBERSHIP RECORD

Are you registered at Holy Angels Parish?
 Have you changed your phone number?
 Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon?
 Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record?
 Are you receiving envelopes or wish to sign up for electronic giving?

Please call the Parish office about changes: 856-845-0123.

Registration forms are available at the Parish Office, in the vestibules of Church, or may be downloaded from our website: www.holyangelsnj.org.
