BIBLE STUDY THURSDAYS—LENT 2021

Part 2 of The Parables of Jesus will be offered Thursday evenings in Lent. We will begin February 18th at 7:00 PM in the Worship Center main floor classroom.

Those who attended Part 1 already have the Text and Commentary. All they will need to purchase is the Study Guide.

If you did not attend Part 1, you can easily attend Part 2. You will have to purchase the Text and the Study Guide. The price is $25. Do not let finances keep you away. Give me a call.

Therefore, if you are interested, please call Jean or Jerry: 856-845-6944 or email me at jerry.washko@verizon.net, leaving your name and contact info. Registration deadline is January 31st. Please call, however, even if you have attended Part 1 as well as any new Bible students.

I would be open to anyone who might like to do a Zoom meeting with this same Bible topic. If you are interested in a Zoom meeting, please call as soon as possible.

For a Zoom meeting you will need a laptop, desktop computer, iPad, smart or iPhone. - Jerry

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

Thank you for your generous support throughout the year!

If you or someone you know needs assistance, please call our help line: 856-848-7744.

We are seeking new members to help us continue in assisting those less fortunate in this area. We particularly need anyone who is available during daytime hours to serve as Client Advocates. This does not require a lot of time.

We meet just once a month on the second Tuesday at 7PM for about an hour. Our Client Advocates may put in an extra 5 hours during one week in a 4 to 6 week period. No experience is necessary. We'll provide the training.

Due to COVID, we are postponing meetings for now, but would still ask that you contact us at the above number if you are interested in helping.

Come and explore how we help our brothers and sisters in the community and how you can be a part of this mission!

A sincere "THANK YOU" to all of our loyal advertisers, who year after year, continue to support our parish by placing ads in the back of our bulletin.

Please say "THANKS" to all of our advertisers for their generous support and mention their ad when doing business with them.

STEWARDSHIP DISCIPLESHIP

"And a voice came from the heavens, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'" - Mark 1:11

Through our baptism, Stewards are daughters and sons of God. We are disciples of Jesus. As true disciples we are called to actively participate in our Catholic faith, not just be mere bystanders. This means working in collaboration with Holy Spirit and discerning how we are being asked to use our gifts. Using our gifts for the benefit of others and not just for our own interests and comfort.

We are thankful for your consistent stewardship.

SECOND COLLECTION:

Holiness

A central theme to the Second Vatican Council was the universal call to holiness. In the document, The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, in Latin, Lumen Gentium, we read this about the Universal Call to Holiness: “...all the faithful of Christ of whatever rank or status, are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity; ...They must follow in His footsteps and conform themselves to His image seeking the will of the Father in all things. They must devote themselves with all their being to the glory of God and the service of their neighbor.”

But the call to holiness, individual and personal holiness, isn't something new; it has been called for throughout the history of the Church. Many of the most profound spiritual writers of the church, such as St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, and St. Teresa of Lisieux, have taught that the spiritual life associated with prayer and holiness is something that we are all called to—adults, children, and teen-agers alike—and not something reserved only for cloistered monks and nuns. Reflecting on this the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity . . . All are called to holiness . . .” (No. 2013).

The root of all this is the mandate of Jesus that comes at the end of the Sermon on the Mount, the Lord's principal guide to holiness that he gives to us. Jesus says: “So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.” (Matthew 5:48). We are to imitate the Father's perfection and holiness.

Only God is holy and we are holy only to the extent God lives in our souls. God is holy, because in himself he possesses the fullness of perfection of love. God enjoys the perfection of love by his very nature; we possess it only by sanctifying grace, which is the life of God within us, received at Baptism. Holiness is living the life of grace that God has given us. The grace, God's actual divine life within us, is what enables us to authentically love firstly God, then others.

It is through one's personal and individual holiness, sometimes call sanctity, that we attain the gift of eternal life. In fact, it is the only way. But holiness isn't automatic. We need to want it and to work at it. God's life within us needs to be activated and used, we are not spectators in our salvation; we are participants. Living the life of grace through prayer, practicing our faith, and following the commandments is how we keep the flame of faith and holiness alive in our hearts. It is through mortal or serious sin that we turn from God and extinguish his life within us. God can and will always restore us to life if we come before him humbly with a sincere desire to repent and do better.

The beautiful thing about holiness is that there really isn't any ceiling. We can always become holier. God is able to enlarge our souls to allow us to share in a greater way in his divine life. It is really for this reason we have been created; to live eternally with God sharing his divine life. We can and do begin that life here on earth. The holier we are in this life the closer we are to heaven. So let us choose holiness, let us want more of God's life in us, let us live the life that Jesus calls us to live.... “Be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect” so that we can enjoy the eternal life for which God has created us.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

JANUARY 10 — BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Reading I: Isaiah 55:1-11

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread, your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David. As I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of nations, so shall you summon a nation you knew not, and nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you. Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked man his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts. For just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

Reading II: I John 5: 1-9

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one who testifies, and the Spirit is truth. So there are three that testify, the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and the three are of one accord. If we accept human testimony, the testimony of God is surely greater. Now the testimony of God is this, that he has testified on behalf of his Son.

The Gospel: Mark 1:7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Reading I: Isaiah 55: 1-11

God speaks as He would to a heavenly court, and promises that He will give His Spirit to the coming Messiah. We also learn about the power of God's Word, which never goes unfulfilled. The Messiah will be "a light to all nations."

Reading II: I John 5: 1-9

This letter of John joins obedience to love. It is incumbent on us to believe that Jesus is the Son of the Father, and that His death for sin brings us eternal life.

The Gospel: Mark 1: 7-11

John the Baptist again exhibits his humility before Jesus, as he declares himself unworthy to do what was normally a slave's task: loosening Jesus' sandal straps. "Wind and fire" describe the coming of the kingdom and precede the proclamation of Our Lord's true identity.

Monday: Heb 1:1-6; Ps 97:1, 2b, 6, 7c, 9; Mk 1:14-20

PB&J CLUB REPORT FOR 2020

Parishioners, both youth and adults, have been making PB&J sandwiches for Joseph's HOUSE in Camden. As you know, Joseph's House offers shelter and services for the homeless. For four years now, we have been working at this ministry, a legacy from Father Bob!

Despite the COVID, we were able to do a marvelous job this year. We had to stop the first Wednesday of the month sandwich gathering due to COVID. But, in replacement we assembled 33 families who contributed on a weekly or monthly basis.

Note the results of the four years:

2017 4374 sandwiches

2018 8240 sandwiches

2019 6728 sandwiches

2020 5701 sandwiches

Thanks to all who put faith into action. "...faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead" - James 2:17

The need is still there. If you can help, any help you can offer would be appreciated.

CASSEROLES

Joseph's HOUSE is a homeless shelter for men and women located in the city of Camden. This mission was established in 2012 by the late Msgr. Robert McDermott, the former pastor of St. Joseph's Pro Cathedral in East Camden.

On the first Monday of each month we deliver casseroles as well as donated paper supplies, coffee, laundry products to the Joseph House.

We are looking for people who would be willing to participate in either making casseroles or donating supplies to this cause.

Deliveries have begun!

For more information, please contact Jerry Campbell at 856-435-0509 or jerbotemple@comcast.net

Holy Angels Catholic School

211 Cooper Street, Woodbury, NJ 08096 856-848-6826

Dear Parishioners,

We are blessed to be able to open our doors this school year. With teachers committed to a premier catholic education in a learning environment where each child is given opportunities to reach his/her full potential.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $5000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs both in school and with our remote learners. Our goal of $10,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference. Additional expenses have been added to our budget this year, i.e., extra cleaning of the school, students' devices and educational platforms, hiring an IT Team and our daily nursing staff to name a few.

Holy Angels is a premier Catholic School rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition. It was crucial for Holy Angels to open our doors this school year. Over the past several months we have collectively worked together, faculty, staff, administration and parents to provide a safe educational environment for our students to grow spiritually as well as academically.

At Holy Angels we are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects.

In order to continue this high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The Annual Fund is one way you can help us with the necessary funds for the school year. Our goal is $10,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation. Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please contact the school for a form and return with your payment or DONATE online at:
