STEWARDS FOLLOW

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good Stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

Thank you for your generous support throughout the year!

If you or someone you know needs assistance, please call our help line: 856-848-7744.

Through the generosity of our parishioners, the St. Vincent de Paul Society was able assist 87 families and individuals with shelter, rent, utilities or food cards for the period June 1 through December 31, 2020. That does not include those helped with food cards for Thanksgiving. Thank you, once again, to our parishioners your contributions!

We are seeking new members to help us continue in assisting those less fortunate in this area. We particularly need anyone who is available during daytime hours to serve as Client Advocates. This does not require a lot of time. Client Advocates may put in an extra 5 hours during one week in a 4 to 6 week period. No experience is necessary. We'll provide the training.

Although our monthly meetings have been postponed due to COVID, we still ask that you contact us at the above number if you are interested in helping.

Come and explore how we help our brothers and sisters in the community and how you can be a part of this mission!

A sincere "THANK YOU" to all of our loyal advertisers, who year after year, continue to support our parish by placing ads in the back of our bulletin.

Please say "THANKS" to all of our advertisers for their generous support and mention their ad when doing business with them.

HUMAN DIGNITY

At the Masses last weekend, after Communion, I reflected on the terrible riots in the Capital and the other ones in various places over the Summer. I said I believe we have a problem in this country and I still do believe it. I also said that the problem isn't "out there" with "those people" but inside, in our own hearts. And I still believe that too.

All too often it seems the norm anymore is to demonize those with whom we disagree so much so that we can feel justified in saying (or doing) just about anything we want because those people on the "other side" are just so evil and they don't deserve to be treated with respect or dignity. Whether we explicitly or implicitly believe this, it is just flat out wrong.

If we can't accept in our heart and mind the innate human dignity of another person created in the image and likeness of God, no matter how much we disagree with them, the problem isn't the disagreement but the lack of respect for the fundamental human dignity of the other. No matter how much we disagree, and no matter how wrong the other is, or how wrong we think the other is, the person is still created in the image and likeness of God and must be treated so.

We have allowed social media and the news media (of which there really isn't much difference anymore) to stir us up so much that we have become blinded to the dignity of the other. And you know why this is done? Not for good, but for profit. Every click, every view they get makes them more money, so the only real incentive for them is not to present things in a calm and balanced way, but in the most inflammatory way possible. This happens on both sides of the "fence" causing people to identify with one side or the other, with no or very little common ground with which to create some unity. Nearly every person in the news and social media who tries to understand both sides and present a nuanced and balanced observation has been sidelined to make room for the inflammatory rhetoric that gets the most clicks and views, and hence the most money.

But the full blame isn't on social media and the news media because we have bought into it. We eat it up and drink it in like a feast. Except that it is poison, we feast on poison. Poison that corrupts our ability to respect the dignity of others, to tolerate differences of opinion, or even to accept that those who differ with us can have any good will at all.

This is not Christlike in the least. Jesus has commanded us to love both our neighbors and our enemies. While we can and should still disagree with people who we think are wrong, we cannot demonize them. If Jesus on the Cross can utter the words, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do," can we not at least do our best to think that those with whom we disagree might be sincere in their perspective and not despicable people who are trying to destroy the world?

It's certainly a challenge to do this, but the Lord will give us the grace we need if we want it and ask for it. So let's do that. Ask for the grace for ourselves and for all of our fellow Americans to begin again to see each other as all worthy of dignity and respect. For it is only from there that we can find common ground and begin to forge a future based on the common good rather than on the narrow good of one faction or the other.

As I said last Sunday, if all we do is rip each other to shreds, then the only thing left will be shreds. I don't think that's what we want. So let us change our own hearts first and see and respect the dignity of the other, so that we regain the heart of our country before it is too late.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

JANUARY 24 — THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Jonah 3: 1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding.

Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

Reading II: I Corinthians 7: 29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

The Gospel: Mark 1: 14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen.

Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Reading I: Jonah 3: 1-5, 10

The prophet, as God's spokesman, brings about a miraculous turnaround by the people of Nineveh. Prior to that, the city was known only for its sinful cruelty and wickedness.

Reading II: I Corinthians 7: 29-31

St. Paul believed in an imminent end of the world, so he recommends detachment from earthly ways. It would be ridiculous to maintain one's "status quo" in such circumstances.

The Gospel: Mark 1: 14-20

Jesus calls His first disciples. He was so compelling that they were immediate with their responses. Jesus describes their new life's work as their becoming "fishers of men."

Monday: Acts 22:3-16 or 9:1-22; Ps 117:1bc, 2; Mk 16:15-18

Tuesday: 2 Tm 1:1-8 or Ti 1:1-5; Ps 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 7-8a, 10; Mk 3:31-35

Wednesday: Heb 10:11-18; Ps 110:1, 2, 3, 4; Mk 4:1-20

Thursday: Heb 10:19-25; Ps 24:1-2, 3-4ab, 5-6; Mk 4:21-25

Friday: Heb 10:32-39; Ps 37:3-4, 5-6, 23-24, 39-40; Mk 4:26-34

Saturday: Heb 11:1-2, 8-19; Lk 1:69-70, 71-72, 73-75; Mk 4:35-41

Dear Parishioners,

We are blessed to be able to open our doors this school year. With teachers committed to a premier catholic education in a learning environment where each child is given opportunities to reach his/her full potential.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $5000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs both in school and with our remote learners. Our goal of $10,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference. Additional expenses have been added to our budget this year, i.e., extra cleaning of the school, students' devices and educational platforms, hiring an IT Team and our daily nursing staff to name a few.

Holy Angels is a premier Catholic School rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition. It was crucial for Holy Angels to open our doors this school year. Over the past several months we have collectively worked together, faculty, staff, administration and parents to provide a safe educational environment for our students to grow spiritually as well as academically.

At Holy Angels we are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects.

In order to continue this high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The Annual Fund is one way you can help us with the necessary funds for the school year. Our goal is $10,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation. Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please contact the school for a form and return with your payment or DONATE online at:

CALL TODAY

"THANK YOU, HOLY ANGELS PARISH"

"Greetings, I am an eighth grade student who has been attending Holy Angels Catholic School for quite some time now, and it has been a wonderful experience learning and growing here. The school has a very fun, unique atmosphere created by the close relationships between the students and their teachers. The experience here allows us to make close friendships, and happy memories with our class and peers. We have plenty of enjoyable activities that bring us closer together run by our teachers and staff who care immensely about giving their students the best education possible, and helping them reach their full potential in their curricular activities, and personal capabilities. We also find a way to include our faith in our everyday lives, praying whenever we get the chance, and keeping Jesus in our everyday lives as a school community."

We thank our parishioners for their continued support to keep our small school with a big heart going, and making sure we have the funds to create the enjoyable experience that we get at Holy Angels Catholic School. They make it possible for us to have the time and money out of their own lives to help and take care of us, and for that we are grateful."

Once again, we thank everyone in charge and taking care of our school for making it the great place it is, and we hope we can keep this school going and growing for years and future generations to come!"

NATIONWIDE PRAYER VIGIL FOR LIFE

Catholics across the country are encouraged to observe a nationwide prayer vigil from THURSDAY, JANUARY 28 TO FRIDAY, JANUARY 29

This marks the 48th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton decisions legalizing abortion through nine months of pregnancy. Since those decisions, over 60 million abortions have been performed legally in the United States.

Each January, the National Prayer Vigil for Life is hosted by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Pro-Life Secretariat, the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, and The Catholic University of America's Office of Campus Ministry to pray for an end to abortion and a greater respect for all human life.

While thousands of pilgrims typically attend the vigil in person each year, the Basilica will not be open to the public for the 2021 vigil due to local attendance restrictions in place because of the Coronavirus pandemic. In response, this year, for the first time ever, in addition to the televised Mass, bishops in dioceses across the country will be taking turns leading live-streamed holy hours every hour on the hour throughout the all-night vigil.

The schedule of the 2021 National Prayer Vigil for Life is listed below. (All times are in Eastern Time.)

Thursday, January 28:

- ~ 8:00PM National Rosary for Life
- ~ 8:30PM Opening Mass—Archbishop Naumann
- ~ 9:45PM Holy Hour for Life
- ~ 11:00PM Live-stream throughout the night

Live-streaming information for the overnight bishop-led Holy Hours from various dioceses will be provided on the USCCB's website: <https://www.usccb.org/>

Friday, January 29:

- ~ 8:00AM Closing Mass—Archbishop William Lori

Live television broadcasts on January 28, 8:00-11:00PM and on January 29, 8:00-9:00AM will be provided by the Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN) and will also be available via live-stream on the Basilica's website:
