Happy Mother's Day!

I want to extend my most heartfelt wishes for all of our mothers at Holy Angels. The role of motherhood is invaluable and irreplaceable. The special bond between mother and child, forged through the months of pregnancy and birth and continuing as the child grows, is most profound. It only takes a few moments of reflection to see the countless times our mothers have continued to carry and nurture us through our lives. Today we take a moment to thank them and to let them know we love them. We also ask the Lord to bless our mothers and to keep them always close to his heart.

Mother's Day Prayer

Loving God,
as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children,
so you watch over your Church.
Bless our mother.
Let the example of her faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, her family, may honor her always with a spirit of profound respect.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

May, of course, is also the month of Mary.

On one of the occasions when Pope emeritus Benedict XVI was leading the praying of the rosary, he addressed a few words to the faithful gathered. It's quite beautiful.

"Today we together confirm that the holy rosary is not some pious practice relegated to the past, a prayer of distant times to be thought of nostalgically. Indeed, the rosary is experiencing what is almost a new springtime. In the modern world that is so dispersive, this prayer helps us to place Christ at the center, as did the Virgin who meditated upon everything that was said about her Son and upon what he himself did and said," Pope emeritus Benedict continued. "When we recite the rosary we relive important monuments of the history of salvation, we again go over the various stages of Christ's mission. With Mary we turn our hearts to the mystery of Jesus. May Mary help us to welcome within ourselves the grace that emanates from these mysteries, so that through us, this grace can 'irrigate' society, starting with our everyday relationships, purifying it from many negative forces and opening it to the novelty of God." Benedict XVI said that the rosary, if prayed well, has many benefits. The rosary, when it is prayed in an authentic manner -- not mechanically and superficially, but profoundly -- brings peace and reconciliation," he said. "It contains the healing power of the Most Holy Name of Jesus, invoked with faith and love at the heart of each Hail Mary."

Remember the old Latin adage, Ad Iesum per Mariam – "To Jesus through Mary" Never forget that a healthy and devout devotion to Our Lady will always lead us closer to her Son. Don't forget to pray your Rosary!

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

For this year, the celebration of the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord has been transferred by the bishops of New Jersey from Thursday, May 13, to Sunday, May 16, 2021, replacing the Seventh Sunday of Easter.

On May 13, prayers and readings for the Thursday of the Sixth Week of Easter will be used, or prayers and possibly the readings for the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima celebrated that day.

On Sunday, May 16, the readings and prayers for the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be used for all weekend Masses, replacing those for the Seventh Sunday of Easter.

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends"

- John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your Stewardship seem mechanical, out of obligation, or do you share freely out of love?

MAY 9 — SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Reading I: Acts 10: 25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being." Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him." While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Reading II: I John 4: 7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

Gospel: John 15: 9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Reading I: Acts 10: 25-26, 34-35, 44-48

Peter protests Cornelius' overdone respect, and then he proceeds to allow some Gentiles present to be baptized, after the Holy Spirit had allowed them to speak in tongues.

Reading II: I John 4: 7-10

Christ has shown us God's love, so we ought to do the same to others. Love must be seen as God's initiative.

The Gospel: John 15: 9-17

The mutual love John here describes is grounded in the fact that both Jesus and the disciples keep the commandments and abide in the love of the Father. We, as Jesus' chosen friends, must obey His one command to love one another.

Monday: Acts 16:11-15; Ps 149:1b-2, 3-4, 5-6a, 9b; Jn 15:26 — 16:4a
