COMMUNION CALLS

For sick or homebound, please call the parish office.

Welcome to our new Music Director!

A very warm welcome to our new Music Director, Elisabeth Pirolli! Elisabeth comes to us with some tremendous talent and experience; we are so lucky! She is a graduate from Rowan University with degrees in both Vocal Music Education and Subject Matter Education. Elisabeth's primary occupation is at Resonance School of Music where she teaches both voice and piano. Elisabeth also has played music and cantored at a number of area parishes. In addition, she is an assistant music director of the Gloucester County Children's Choir.

At the same time, we thank Mr. Mike Plunkett who has spent decades in the parish leading us in music. He has served the parish and the Lord very well during his time here and we are most grateful to Mike for his service.

Music is an integral part in the worthy worship of our Lord at Mass. We are very fortunate to have Elisabeth, someone who loves the Lord and has both enthusiasm and ability to put a great program together for our parish here at Holy Angels. She starts August 1, so, please make sure you give her a warm and friendly welcome when you see her at Mass!

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

"I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS"

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS, POPE FRANCIS

PRAYER FOR THE FIRST WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence: even in times of loneliness, You are my hope and my confidence, You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth! I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life. I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life and for those that are still ahead of me. I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me.

Increase, O Lord, my faith, make me a channel of your peace, teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me, to never stop dreaming and to tell of your wonders to new generations.

Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth. Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed, the poor consoled and wars ended.

Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day, even until the end of the age. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP SHARING

*"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish;
but what good are these for so many?" -- John 6:9*

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share in Stewardship. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God.
All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason.
No gift is too small or insignificant!

FACES OF HOPE

2021 CAMPAIGN UPDATE

Gifts to-date: $110,531

Our Goal: $155,500 % of Goal: 71.1%

During the month of July, the House of Charity is conducting a mailing to parishioners who have not yet donated to this year's campaign. With this reminder, now would be the ideal time to participate in this important effort to make this year's campaign a success. There are many parishioners who have given in the past and who have not yet made a gift.

To all, please consider a sacrificial gift to help continue the mission of the Church here in our parish and in our Diocese.
There are still many people who are in need and greatly benefit from the House of Charity campaign.
YOU can make a difference.

JULY 25 — SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: 2 Kings 4: 42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

Reading II: Ephesians 4: 1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Gospel: John 6: 1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Reading I: 2 Kings 4: 42-44

This text is the inspiration for the multiplication miracle. The gift of the man from Baal-shalishah indicates the esteem Elisha enjoyed among the people.

Reading II: Ephesians 4: 1-6

Paul points out that the new humanity created in Christ is exemplified by the Church's unity. This unity is fostered by humility, gentleness and patience.

The Gospel: John 6: 1-15

As in other of John's miracle stories, Jesus takes the initiative. He tests Philip, but the apostle misses the point that Jesus was appealing to his faith. Then Jesus distributes the bread and fishes, later avoiding any move on the people's part to make Him king.
