He who does not gather with me scatters

In a passage from the Gospel of Luke that was heard at daily Mass recently, Jesus was driving out demons and was accused of driving them out by the power of the devil. He effectively silenced his detractors by pointing out that a kingdom divided by itself cannot stand....and if Satan is divided against himself how will his kingdom stand? At the end of this passage he offers a very powerful statement, one that is probably quite familiar to us. "Whoever is not with me is against me." Most of us know that one. But what is very interesting to me is that this is only half of the sentence that he speaks. The second half of the sentence is, "and he who does not gather with me scatters".

In both of these statements there is no middle ground, no fence to sit on, we are either on one side or the other. We are either with the Lord or we are not. But what I find thought-provoking is how often the second part is left off. Whether it is intentional or subconscious, I don't know, but I do know that the whole sentence of Jesus is immensely more powerful and challenging than just the half we are so familiar with.

After all, how many of us, even those who are lukewarm, are going to say explicitly they are against Jesus. "No, we are with you all the way, Lord!" Sure, we can observe from someone's behavior, perhaps, if they truly mean they are with the Lord, but that decision is up to God anyway. But what about the second part? Clearly the Lord is not just looking for a cheering section or for his followers to be intellectually on his side, Jesus is looking for doers. If we are truly to be with the Lord, it cannot be passive, far from it. We are to be gathering with the Lord. We are to be actively trying to bring others to the Lord. This is the only way we can truly be "with" him.

Aside from the necessary and obvious need to give a good example to others, when is the last time you invited someone to Mass, or to pray with you? When's the last time you tried to get a fallen away Catholic friend or relative back to Church? When is the last time you clarified the teaching of our Faith when someone was confused or in error about it? That's gathering. Not doing those things, according to Jesus, is scattering. Something I don't think we want be found guilty of, because if we are scattering, then we are clearly not "with" the Lord either.

In such a disturbing time we live, we all need Jesus even more. We should be asking the Holy Spirit to give us the strength and courage to reach out to others. We don't need to be experts in theology, we just need to love and to care and to reach out since we are not doing it on our own but in and with the Lord. He expects us not to just have our own relationship with him, but to bring others to his love and mercy and salvation. Gathering is a requirement for the follower of Christ. And I don't think he will accept from us, "but Lord I forgot about the second part."

So let us gather together with Him!

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

PRAYING WITH SCRIPTURE (LECTIO DIVINA)

Saint Jerome wrote that those who are ignorant of the Scriptures, and in particular the gospels, do not know Christ.

Lectio Divina (Sacred Reading) is a four step method of reading the scriptures according to an ancient tradition in the early church.

These four steps bring about not only knowledge about the text, but also how to learn to listen to what Scripture is saying to your heart today.

A small group of parishioners currently meet on the fourth Monday of each month at 10 o'clock in the morning in the basement of the church to do Lectio Divina.

If you would like to grow in your appreciation of scripture and how to use it and pray with it, please join us.

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults is a sacramental process that prepares adults to be received into the Catholic Church. Persons who complete the process receive the sacraments of Baptism (if not yet baptized), First Eucharist, and Confirmation.

OCIA begins after each Easter season with a rolling open enrollment and continues to the following Easter season. The process is also available for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of First Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Deacon Vince at dvladini@outlook.com or 609-932-6170.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of January 19, 2025

Paul the Apostle | The Bible Collection

The church's greatest enemy became Christ's most prolific messenger. Beautifully shot in the Moroccan desert, Paul the Apostle is a sweeping saga of the man who brought the Gospel to the Western world.

Mass

There is infinite grace available in every Mass and confession, but our subjective experience may not reflect this objective reality. We need to switch on. The focus of this episode is unlocking more grace from Mass and confession.

Saint Francis de Sales and the Character of a Christian: Devotion (Part 1 of 4)

In this four-part series, Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Christopher O. Blum sit down to discuss St. Francis de Sales, his best known work "The Introduction to the Devout Life", and the character of a Christian.
