The Mystery of our Soul

One little article is not really sufficient to explain the mystery of the soul, the human person, and God's grace. But I do hope to offer some insight as to what we believe, according to the authentic teaching of the Church, and to spur you on to greater investigation, meditation, and prayer on this wonderful topic.

The immortal part of the human person, the soul, is a fascinating and mysterious part of who we are. It is our certain faith that human beings are created in the image of God, being at once body and soul. The Catechism states, [the] "soul"...refers to the innermost aspect of man, that which is of greatest value in him, that by which he is most especially in God's image: "soul" signifies the spiritual principle in man." This does not mean, however, that the body isn't important. The Catechism further says, "The human body shares in the dignity of "the image of God": it is a human body precisely because it is animated by a spiritual soul, and it is the whole human person that is intended to become, in the body of Christ, a temple of the Spirit."

Thus we have a unity of body and soul which makes up the human person. As the Catechism states, "the unity of soul and body is so profound that one has to consider the soul to be the "form" of the body: i.e., it is because of its spiritual soul that the body made of matter becomes a living, human body; spirit and matter, in man, are not two natures united, but rather their union forms a single nature."

But what about our emotions? Are they part of our bodies and souls? Don't we often "feel" close to God? Is that accurate? Are our emotions good or bad? It is often a great challenge for us to properly understand the role of our emotions. Often our feelings are attributed to our souls, but that is not really the case. Perhaps surprisingly, our faith teaches us that our emotions are "part" of our bodily nature. In the Catechism we read, "Feelings or passions are emotions or movements of the sensitive appetite that incline us to act or not to act in regard to something felt or imagined to be good or evil....they form the passageway and ensure the connection between the life of the senses and the life of the mind." As the connection between our bodies and souls, our emotions are extremely important to us, but they are not the powers of our souls. Our emotions and passions motivate us to act in a certain way, good or evil, but they must always be filtered through our intellect and will (our soul) so that we choose what we know to be good and reject what we know to be evil, no matter how strongly we feel one way of the other. That is the challenge of holiness.

So, then, how can we "know" we are receiving God's grace if we can't feel it? When I come out of Mass feeling uplifted, isn't that God's grace? While feeling uplifted after Mass or prayer in a given instance may be a blessing from God, it is not an indication that we have received God's grace. Here again the Catechism teaches us, "Since it belongs to the supernatural order, grace escapes our experience and cannot be known except by faith. We cannot therefore rely on our feelings or our works to conclude that we are justified and saved. However, according to the Lord's words "Thus you will know them by their fruits" - reflection on God's blessings in our life and in the lives of the saints offers us a guarantee that grace is at work in us and spurs us on to an ever greater faith and an attitude of trustful poverty."

While we may not consciously perceive the reception of God's grace, there is no question that we can tell God is working within us. Much like love or life, neither of which we can actually see, yet we know they exist through the signs that they leave. We know love when we love and are loved, we know life when we live, and we know God's grace in active in us as we increase in faith and trust and love of God and our lives demonstrate that faith, trust, and love in God by the way we live them.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

CAN YOU SPEND ONE HOUR WITH OUR LORD IN THE EUCHARIST?

We need more people who are willing to commit to spending time with Our Lord on Fridays at St. Matthew's Church.

If you can commit or are willing to be a substitute, please call/text Linda at 856-313-4199 or

STEPHEN MINISTRY

A Stephen Minister is able to provide: a listening ear, a supportive perspective, and God's Word to help us through the challenges of life.

For those who want to come alongside and support others in a more intentional way, we provide training to become a Stephen Minister. Through the training, you will receive practical, hands-on learning and resources to provide Christ-centered care and meet the emotional and spiritual needs of others.

To learn how you can become a Stephen Minister—or how a Stephen Minister can help you or someone you know call: 856-931-1979.

Please pray for our Stephen Minister trainees as they continue to enhance their caregiving skills. This week, they'll have the first of two sessions on "Distinctively Christian Caring" focusing on the essentials or using their Christian faith in caring for hurting people and learning practical ways to live out the reality that "The Stephen Minister is the caregiver, and God is the Curegiver."

We all need help from time to time, and your request for a Stephen Minister will be confidential.

OCIA begins after each Easter season with a rolling open enrollment and continues to the following Easter season. The process is also available for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of First Eucharist and/or Confirmation.
