Love Your Enemies

"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father" (Mathew 5:43-44)

We are told very clearly by Christ in the above Gospel passage to love our enemies. There really isn't any way around such an explicit command of the Lord. I think this command to love our enemy is made even more binding upon hearing also the words of Jesus as he hangs, dying on the Cross, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." The followers of Jesus have no choice but to love their enemies.

So I guess it's important to first figure out who are enemies are so that we can love them. The word "enemy" is derived from the Latin word "inimicus" which comes from the words "in" (not) + "amicus" (friend). Even deeper, "amicus" comes from the Latin word "amare" to love. So a friend is one that loves us and a "not-friend", an enemy, is one who does not love us. I think though, in common usage, an enemy is better described as one who has or seeks to harm us in some way. I think we all can identify with that. It's a true spiritual challenge to reach out in love to those who have and/or are trying to hurt us. But we need to make sure we don't tag everyone who has hurt us with the "enemy" label. I'm sure we all can think many times that we ourselves have hurt someone by a careless word or deed. Enemies aren't negligent or thoughtless, they want to hurt us. It's an important distinction.

Frankly, I think it's pretty much impossible to love true enemies without the grace of God. And I think here is the core of the command. Like so many teachings of the Lord, loving our enemies does not come naturally to our fallen human nature. The Lord is calling us to rise above our fallen humanity; something that can only be done through his grace. The command to love our enemies is another example of our need to call upon the infinite treasure of grace and strength that comes from Christ to do something that we can't do otherwise. This treasure is available to those who strive to live an authentic Christian life and have a true friendship with the Lord through the practice of our faith and the worthy reception of the sacraments. For instance, you are never going to make a key five foot putt to win the golf match if you don't practice putting. We are not going to be receptive to the grace of Christ if we do not practice our faith.

We will never be able to forgive or to love our enemies if we are not close to the Lord. And the problem with this is that if we don't forgive them and don't love them, we are going to be miserable. Our enemies are our enemies for some reason, they probably don't care that they hurt us, heck, that is what they try to do! Wallowing in hatred and anger for someone who has no concern for us is pointless. So there is also a practical wisdom in this teaching, it's good for us to love them. But above all, I think it is our prayer, the prayer of the one injured for the one who has injured, that merits a special hearing in God's presence. Probably more than anything else that can help the conversion of such a person through God's mercy, is a prayer offered on behalf of the enemy by the one who has been wronged.

No talk about enemies is complete without a reminder that we are to be no one's enemy. Ever. While we may defend ourselves and our loved ones from harm though moral means, intending to harm someone in any way - whether it is physically, emotionally, spiritually, harming their reputation, taking away their friends, revealing their faults and sins – is a grave sin and cries out to God for justice. So, let us plead with God to receive his grace to both forgive our enemies and to never be an enemy ourselves.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

STEPHEN MINISTRY

A Stephen Minister is able to provide: a listening ear, a supportive perspective, and God's Word to help us through the challenges of life.

For those who want to come alongside and support others in a more intentional way, we provide training to become a Stephen Minister. Through the training, you will receive practical, hands-on learning and resources to provide Christ-centered care and meet the emotional and spiritual needs of others.

To learn how you can become a Stephen Minister—or how a Stephen Minister can help you or someone you know call: 856-931-1979.

Continue to pray for our Stephen Minister trainees. This week they are exploring one of the more frequent situations in which they may provide care --"Ministering to Those Experiencing Grief." They'll learn about the different stages of grief, along with practical ways they can care at each stage. This is a situation everyone is likely to encounter at different times in life, so it's a crucial way our Stephen Ministers will offer care to our congregation and community.

We all need help from time to time, and your request for a Stephen Minister will be confidential.

Dear Holy Angels Family & Friends,

At Holy Angels we are a Catholic School rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition with faith to grow spiritually. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing school environment. Our teachers care deeply and are committed to helping students develop fundamental knowledge and lifelong skills required for long term success. Ultimately, our school is a family with the goal of making the world a better place and helping each student succeed academically.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $10,000 in donations. As always, your support is necessary to continue building upon our outstanding educational programs.

In order to continue to raise the bar on educational excellence and update the ever evolving tools and equipment needed to prosper, we need your help. The yearly tuition covers a portion of essentials, but unfortunately not all expenses. The annual fund is one way for you to help us achieve the funds necessary for the school year.

Last year, we were blessed to be able to enhance our gym with a much anticipated score board! This year, we intend to use the proceeds of our Annual Fund to make additional enhancements to our Parish Center. The kitchen is essential to many of our clubs and events. Our hope is to use the proceeds to upgrade our kitchen so that it may continue to be an integral part of shaping our community and students.

Our goal of $15,000 can be achieved with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift would be a blessing that makes a lasting difference in our school community. Any amount helps, and no amount is too small. If you have the means, we ask that you please consider donating.

You may send your donation to school, or if you prefer to donate ONLINE please use this link:

Thank you as always for your continued support and generosity. We couldn't do this without you!

May God bless you always,
