Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

WELCOME, DEACON SAM SPOTO

Deacon Spoto was ordained on October 24, 2020 after nearly five and half years of study and formation. We are very blessed to have him assigned to here. There are a lot more openings than Deacons to fill, so we are fortunate the Bishop likes Holy Angels Parish! **: -)

Deacon Spoto is pretty local, living in Gibbstown. He grew up in the area and remembers coming to Midnight Mass at St. Patrick's as a child. Deacon Spoto is excited and looking forward to serving the people of Holy Angels Parish.

Please be sure to give him a big, friendly welcome when you see him!

Happy New Year 2021

Throughout this Christmas Season, and always, please remember in your prayers all of our Soldiers and Families who serve across the nation and the globe. Their work is hazardous and puts them on the cutting edge of technology and weaponry. Many are in stressful situations at work and at home as the rigors of serving mount during the holidays.

Please pray that the Lord would protect and nurture the military and their families!!

FORGIVING STEWARDS

"...as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive."
- Colossians 3:13

Forgiving is one of the hardest things for people to do. We can't give what we don't have. Through Stewardship, we need to receive God's mercy and forgiveness first before we can give it to others. Go to the sacrament of Reconciliation and receive God's mercy and forgiveness. Then, share the gift of forgiveness with someone – a family member, a friend or a co-worker. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

Pastor's Corner

It's a Wonderful Life, because of Love

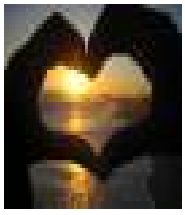
One December, when I was a sophomore in college, I got a very bad case of acute viral bronchitis right before Christmas vacation. It was really bad. There I was sick as a dog, with a massive fever, hardly able to even move, alone in my dorm room, feeling lonely and depressed. With nothing else to do, I turned on the small 12" black and white TV set (some of you remember those, right?). This was the first time I had ever watched "It's a Wonderful Life." If you don't know this film, I recommend it. It stars Jimmy Stewart as George Bailey, a compassionate businessman, who gave up his dreams and aspirations because he was always helping others. On Christmas Eve, feeling depressed and discouraged and in serious trouble due to someone else's mistake, he is prepared to end his life. But an angel sent from God comes and helps him by showing what life would have been like if he never existed. It's a beautiful movie that never ceases to choke me up, no matter how many times I have seen it.

During this sacred season when we celebrate the birth of the Savior of the world, it might seem a waste of time to write about an old movie. However, the goodness and love of God can be so overwhelming that it is impossible for us to fully comprehend. Sometimes it is helpful for us to see the reflection of God in others. While George Bailey is just a fictional character, we can still earn a lesson about goodness and love from him. It took an angel of God to come to George to help him understand the value of a life lived with goodness and love. It turns out that George, because he was a loving and unselfish person, had a profound effect on the whole community in which he lived. He was given a special gift in seeing what would have happened to the town if not for his self-sacrifice. It helped him understand the power of love.

But the love displayed by the character is just a drop of water compared to the ocean of God's love seen in Jesus his Son. As we continue to celebrate Christmas, let's remember we are celebrating the incarnation of Love. Love "enfleshed" in the person of Christ enters the world to bring the transforming and saving power of that love to a world thirsting for authentic love. Jesus Christ is born. By the power of his self-giving love, our Lord made heaven possible for us!

As we continue to rejoice in celebrating the beginning of our salvation at Christmas, let us also remember that we, too, are called to transform the world around us and have wonderful lives, by showing the same self-giving love that we see in our newborn Savior.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley



DECEMBER 27 — FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Reading I: Genesis 15:1-6; 21:1-3 OR Sirach 3: 2-6, 12-14
The word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying: "Fear not, Abram! I am your shield; I will make your reward very great." But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what good will your gifts be, if I keep on being childless and have as my heir the steward of my house, Eliezer?" Abram continued, "See, you have given me no offspring, and so one of my servants will be my heir." Then the word of the LORD came to him: "No, that one shall not be your heir; your own issue shall be your heir." The Lord took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be." Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness. The LORD took note of Sarah as he had said he would; he did for her as he had promised. Sarah became pregnant and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time that God had stated. Abraham gave the name Isaac to this son of his whom Sarah bore him.

Reading II: Hebrews 11:8, 11-12, 17-19 OR Colossians 3: 12-21
Brothers and sisters: By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, not knowing where he was to go. By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age --and Sarah herself was sterile-- for he thought that the one who had made the promise was trustworthy. So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sands on the seashore. By faith Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was ready to offer his only son, of whom it was said, "Through Isaac descendants shall bear your name." He reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, and he received Isaac back as a symbol.

The Gospel: Luke 2: 22-40 or Luke 2:22, 39-40
When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, They took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, He took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted —and you yourself a sword will pierce— so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage, and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer. And coming forward at that very time, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem. When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions of the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

Reading I: Sirach 3: 2-6, 12-14 OR Genesis 15:1-6; 21:1-3
Fidelity to the Lord implies many virtues. Chief among them is our duties toward our parents. The traditional blessings are then listed.

Reading II: Colossians 3: 12-21 OR Hebrews 11:8, 11-12, 17-19
This section is an early baptismal instruction. It describes the Christian community which a new member embraces through his/her baptism.

The Gospel: Luke 2: 22, 39-40 OR Luke 2:22-40
This section points out the necessity of the Nazareth years in Jesus' life. It was there that He grew strong in the full experience of a human nature. In that way, He could bring the Spirit of God into contact with every area of our lives.

Holy Angels Catholic School

211 Cooper Street, Woodbury, NJ 08096 856-848-6826

Dear Parishioners,

We are blessed to be able to open our doors this school year. With teachers committed to a premier catholic education in a learning environment where each child is given opportunities to reach his/her full potential.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $5000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs both in school and with our remote learners. Our goal of $10,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference. Additional expenses have been added to our budget this year, i.e., extra cleaning of the school, students' devices and educational platforms, hiring an IT Team and our daily nursing staff to name a few.

Holy Angels is a premier Catholic School rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic tradition. It was crucial for Holy Angels to open our doors this school year. Over the past several months we have collectively worked together, faculty, staff, administration and parents to provide a safe educational environment for our students to grow spiritually as well as academically.

At Holy Angels we are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects.

In order to continue this high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The Annual Fund is one way you can help us with the necessary funds for the school year. Our goal is $10,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation. Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please contact the school for a form and return with your payment or DONATE online at:
