Advent and Time

Even though Advent is coming to a close, it is still upon us. And therefore there still is plenty of time to rededicate ourselves to the Lord and our Catholic faith. No matter where we are in our relationship with the Lord there is always more to go, closer we can be to Him. We must always keep in mind that we can never become complacent with our friendship with Christ.

The Lord must occupy the first place in our lives, and if this is so, all of our other relationships will be more fruitful. We don't limit our other relationships by giving ourselves to the Lord; rather it is through our complete communion with Jesus that our hearts are expanded and we are able to love others more and be loved by others more. Sometimes in our hectic lives often burdened with great concerns and worries it is hard for us to see that our priority should still be our relationship with the Lord. But it is true.

Like anything else that is important to us, time more than anything else is the currency we spend to show what and who we truly value. The more time we spend on something or someone, the more important the person or thing is to us. Perhaps a good meditation we can use during our final Advent preparation for the coming of Jesus at Christ is to reflect on our use of time. How much time do we spend on things and people? How much time do we spend with and or for the Lord? Is the manner in which we spend the precious resource of our time consistent with the way we describe to others what is important to us? Prayerful and honest consideration of these questions will provide a good insight into our hearts and the people and things we value.

As the saying goes, "show me the money"; in this case it's more "show me the time". The concrete, practical steps we take on how we use our time will be the evidence we show in how we adjust the list of who and what takes priority in our lives.

There is nothing the Lord wants more that to be the center of our lives. There is nothing greater for us that for the Lord to be the center of our lives. As we continue our Advent preparation, may we be open to this awareness so that we can provide a welcoming heart at the arrival of our Lord Jesus.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Gifts to Date: $158,357
Our Goal: $155,500
% of Goal: 101.8%

By making goal, our parish receives a rebate of 10% of that goal amount, and in addition to that, we will now receive back 75% of gifts made above our goal.

Pledges are included in our Gifts to Date amount, and any pledges unpaid by the 2024 campaign's end on March 31, 2025, will be deducted from the Gifts to Date total. This could put both our 10% and 75% rebates in jeopardy. With extenuating circumstances understood, your anticipated co-operation would be appreciated.
