Invite or Lose

The other day I saw a social media post from a former student of mine who had just “found Jesus.” This was a Catholic child who went to Catholic school. It made me both sad and angry. Sad, because this child had gone through a number of years of “Catholic” education, but didn’t seem to know the Lord. Angry, too, because this child had gone through a number of years of “Catholic” education, but didn’t seem to know the Lord. It’s not that the Christian Faith wasn’t taught at the school, or the religion teachers didn’t do their job. It’s also the case that no matter how well something is presented, not everyone will benefit. Nonetheless, I think about this person, now an adult, and wonder what we, as a Church, could have done or should have done to keep this person connected to the Catholic Faith. While recognizing that other Christian communities contain elements of the Christian Faith, we believe that the Catholic Church possesses the fullness of the faith.

Somehow, we have failed this person who, having now “found” Jesus, is now settling for something less than the fullness of the Faith offered by Christ and is also without the benefit of the Sacraments given to us by the Lord. It’s kind of heartbreaking. And this person is not an isolated case. Many, many of those who attend non-denominational Christian communities are “former” Catholics.

The ultimate catalyst in this person leaving the Catholic Church, and for many others, was a personal invitation from someone who reached out and spoke directly to them about Jesus. It is something that other Christian communities often do a lot better than us. Yes, we have the fullness of the Faith and the eternal life-giving sacraments, but how excited are we about that? How willing are we to share such good news? How much do we accept the responsibility to bring others to the Lord Jesus?

Last weekend in his homily, Deacon Murnane reminded us of the distinction between membership and discipleship. Merely being a member of the Catholic Church is not enough. We need to be disciples of Christ. We need to be willing to share the faith with others, we need to give public witness to our faith. If we really believe we have something special, we should be willing to invite others to share in the fullness of Christ. If we are a bit uneasy or awkward about it, that’s pretty common. The Lord will help us. We don’t want or need to lose anymore. It’s time now to put our faith out there and be the disciples of Christ we are called to be. Start talking to fellow Catholics and perhaps family members. Start talking to them about Jesus, invite them to know him, invite them to pray and worship with us. Be witnesses to Christ our Lord.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

STEPHEN MINISTRY STATISTICS

Why Stephen Ministry?

St. Stephen was the first deacon, the first martyr, and one of the first to dedicate his life to the poor.

In Acts 6, Stephen was among those chosen to provide caring ministry to those in need. Since Jesus' time, caring ministry has been a hallmark of the Christian faith community.

"Stephen Ministers: The After People"—Stephen Ministers come into a person's life after a crisis has hit and then provide care for as long after as needed. In what types of situations do Stephen Ministers provide care?

Stephen Ministers provide care to individuals facing difficult times in life—grief, cancer, divorce, financial difficulties, hospitalization, chronic illness, job loss, disability, a spiritual crisis, or other life struggles.

Don't suffer alone, our Stephen Ministers are here to help. Call one of our Stephen Leaders to begin your journey to wholeness:

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of June 16, 2024

To Be a Pilgrim

An ancient trail of pilgrimage runs through south-east England, a pathway along which so much of English identity converges. It is the way of St. Thomas Becket, the martyr who stood up to a King and inspired Christendom. It is a route that drew countless pilgrims in ages past, captured the imagination of Chaucer, and interest in this pilgrim path is strongly reviving again today.

Saint Thomas More: The Age of the Author

This engaging series delves into the lives of the saints who led the Catholic Counter-Reformation. In this episode, learn about St. Thomas More, a patient witness to the faith who endured a heroic martyrdom at the hands of Henry VIII.

Episode 124: Dryness in Prayer

Probably the most important relationship in our life is our relationship with God, and we are building that through prayer. Prayer is real – it's for everyone, but we know that prayer is not always easy. Sometimes it can even be really hard.
