LENT 2024

Last week, we began Lent on February 14th, the date for Ash Wednesday this year. Even though we know it, it is important to remind ourselves each year that the season of Lent is much more than giving up stuff. It can and should be a time of great spiritual renewal for each of us and it offers us a great opportunity to be transformed and come closer to the Lord.

The ashes of Ash Wednesday remind us of two things: firstly, our earthy mortality and secondly, that it is sin which causes our death. As there is no Easter glory without Lenten sacrifice, neither is there Lent without Easter. Throughout the penitential days of Lent, we look with hope to the Resurrection of Christ which conquers both sin and death. Therefore we reflect on our own sinfulness not in a despairing way but with the hope of overcoming our sinfulness through the power of Christ. Lent is a time we humbly and honestly recognize that we need to be saved; and it is Christ - by his passion, death, and resurrection- who saved us.

It is within this framework that we carry out our Lenten fast. All of our Lenten penance, self-denial, fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are the means by which we turn away from sin and back towards the Lord and open ourselves up to his mercy. When we strip away from ourselves all those excess things that surround us we can more easily see that it is the Lord and the Lord alone who brings us completion and happiness.

We must also be concerned for others as well during our Lenten pilgrimage. Pope Francis reminds us in one of his Lenten messages, “Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt.”

So when we choose not to have that piece of chocolate cake or box of Cheez-Its, or when we abstain from meat on Fridays, or when we make the effort to pray more, come to Mass during the week or to come to Adoration or Stations of the Cross, do it with an intention. Say to the Lord, “I make this offering to you Lord, in love, to enable me to open my heart to the vast power of your love and mercy, transform me into your likeness. Help me to see that union with you is my goal and you alone can help me reach it. Help me to see the needs of others and be willing to give of myself for them.”

I urge you, my friends, to take every opportunity this Lent to come closer to our loving God. I look forward to making this wonderful spiritual pilgrimage with you as we prepare for the celebration of Christ’s glorious resurrection at Easter.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Reminder 1: Come out to a special and wonderful event that will help you come closer to the Lord! Parish Mission March 4-6, morning session 9:30AM and evening session 7:00PM all three days. See Bulletin for details.

Reminder 2: On Saturday, March 23 at 7:00PM, Mark Forrest is returning! Mark will lead a “Night of Prayer” with music, prayer, adoration. Another wonderful way to add to your Lent!

Reminder 3: During Lent there will be Confessions on Thursday evenings at 7:00PM (except March 7, 14 & 28). Receiving the sacrament of Penance is a wonderful way to make your Lent fruitful and to prepare for the celebration of the Lord’s Resurrection.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

A Stephen Minister is able to provide: a listening ear, a supportive perspective, and God's Word to help us through the challenges of life.

For those who want to come alongside and support others in a more intentional way, we provide training to become a Stephen Minister. Through the training, you will receive practical, hands-on learning and resources to provide Christ-centered care and meet the emotional and spiritual needs of others.

To learn how you can become a Stephen Minister—or how a Stephen Minister can help you or someone you know call: 856-931-1979.

Christ Caring for People through People

That's the motto of Stephen Ministry. The Stephen Minister's role is to bring God's love into the lives of people who are going through a difficult time or experiencing a crisis. What do Stephen Ministers do? They listen, care, support, encourage, and pray with and for a person who is hurting. And in the midst of this confidential, one-to-one, caring relationship, God's healing love comes pouring through.

If you or someone you know is facing a crisis—large or small—and could benefit from the caring presence of a Stephen Minister, talk to one of our Stephen Leaders:

Karen Partridge: 609-970-7550

Sharon James: 856-904-3364

Steve Malti: 856-381-8058

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

We all need help from time to time, and your request for a Stephen Minister will be confidential.

LECTIO DIVINA IN LENT

—(Praying with Scripture)—

Come and join us during Lent on Mondays · 10:00AM

—St. Patrick Church basement—

Once a month for the past year, on Monday morning, a small group of parishioners have been meeting to pray the scriptures according to the ancient format of Lectio Divina.

Once again during this Lenten Season, we will be meeting every Monday of Lent to pray the Sunday's readings.
All are welcome to join us. Explore the specific format of Lectio Divina and how it helps us take into our own hearts and lives the words of the Gospel.

—Was Jesus really abandoned by the Father on the cross?

"You have said so."
