Keeping Holy the Sabbath Day

In a Sunday Angelus address, during the time Pope Benedict XVI was in office, he called on the faithful gathered in St. Peter's Square to live Sunday not only as a day of rest and of the family, but above all as a day "to dedicate to the Lord." Addressing thousands of pilgrims, the late Holy Father called to mind the Sunday Gospel of St. Luke, where Jesus enters the synagogue on the Sabbath. The Pope noted that Jesus Christ, as a devout believer, "does not neglect the weekly liturgical rhythm." Continuing his commentary on the Gospel, the Pope reflected on the Lord's words upon reading the passage from the prophet Isaiah: "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing" (Lk. 4:21).

"St. Cyril of Alexandria states that the 'today,' placed between the first and last coming of Christ, is linked to the believer's capacity to listen and reform his life," Benedict said. "But in a still more radical sense Jesus himself is the 'today' of salvation in history because he brings the fullness of redemption. The term 'today,' very dear to St. Luke, brings us to the preferred Christological title of the same evangelist, namely, 'savior'. Already in the infancy narratives, it is presented in the words of the angel to the shepherds: "Today, in the city of David, there is born for you a Savior, Christ the Lord".

Pope Benedict continued his address reminding the faithful to live Sunday as a day dedicated to the Lord, where participating in the Eucharist (Mass), "we are nourished by the Body and Blood of Christ and by his Word of life." The Holy Father also stated that the Gospel invites us to reflect on our capacity to listen to God. "Before speaking about God and with God we must listen to him, and the Church's liturgy is the 'school' of this listening to the Lord who speaks to us," the Benedict said. "In the end he tells us that every moment can become a 'today' that is favorable for our conversion. Every day can become the today of salvation because salvation is the story that continues for the Church and for each disciple of Christ. This is the Christian sense of "carpe diem" (seize the day): welcome the today in which God calls you to grant you salvation!"

If we want God to have more of an impact in our lives, we need to first start with Sunday. Being faithful to Sunday Mass is essential. While at Mass, we need to do our best to participate fully. And we also need to remember to do some sort of family prayer together (reading Sacred Scripture together, praying the Rosary or part of the Rosary, etc.). Spending time with the Lord and our family, together, on the "Lord's Day" is a surefire recipe for having us and our families come closer to Him and receive all of the love and blessings He wishes to give us.

*God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley*

2024 APPEAL: "THROUGH HIM AND FOR HIM"

This year's theme: "Through Him and For Him" continues our focus on the nation-wide Eucharist Revival and reminds us that "in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself."

This reminds us Christ is central in our lives and present in the Eucharist. Your individual gift to this Appeal will become one of many that unites and builds up the one Body of Christ. Through our various ministries across the diocese your gift is shared and brings comfort, relief, encouragement and support to many.

Next weekend, February 10th & 11th, we will be holding our Catholic Ministries Appeal In-Pew Weekend. In preparation, you should receive a mailing from Bishop Sullivan that will include the 2024 South Jersey Catholic Ministries Appeal materials. I ask that you please consider donating to this year's campaign. It is important that we come together to support our ministries. They need the resources necessary to continue serving those in need.

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting those who comprise the programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we can bring the light of hope to those in the Catholic community of South Jersey.

Please prayerfully consider joining us once again.

God bless you,
Fr. Byerley

STEPHEN MINISTRY HOLY ANGELS PARISH COMMISSIONS STEPHEN MINISTERS

Sunday, February 4, 2024, seven Stephen Ministers will be commissioned at the 11:30 Mass.
They are: Diane Cameron, Maggie Carter-Minton, Barbara Haase, Patty Malti, Barbara Maronski, Brenda Quinn and Jacqui Senior.

These seven women have undertaken 50 hours of specialized training that has provided them with the knowledge and skills to offer confidential, one-to-one, distinctively Christian care to people suffering from grief, loss, and other difficult times.

Stephen Ministers meet weekly with their care receiver for around an hour to listen, care, encourage, pray, and provide emotional and spiritual support for the person. Caring relationships last for as long as the person's need persists.

Please lift up our new Stephen Ministers in your prayers, asking that God bless their ministry and work through them to bring hope and healing to those whom they will serve. We thank God for their gifts, and we ask him to be present with them both in their times of joy and of sorrow as they bring God's care to those in need. Pray also for the ongoing ministry of our current Stephen Minister leaders, Sharon James, Steve Malti, and Karen Partridge.

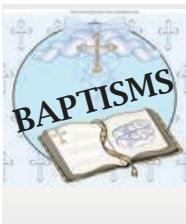

Our newly commissioned Stephen Ministers begin twice-monthly supervision and continuing education this week. Pray for them as they look forward to beginning their first care-giving assignments and continue to grow as caregivers. Here is the topic they'll be covering in continuing education this week: Ministering to the Dying and Their Family and Friends.

LENT 2024 | Reflect. Repent. Restore.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			February 14  Ash Wednesday— Lent Begins  Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation.  (2 Cor 6:2)	February 15  "During Lent we are invited to ascend 'a high mountain' in the company of Jesus and to live a particular experience of spiritual discipline — asceticism — as God's holy people."  (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	February 16  Explore some new meatless recipes and commit to living more simply, accompanying our brothers and sisters who lack material resources.	February 17  Many who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil will celebrate the Rite of Election tomorrow. Say a prayer for the elect, for those who will be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church, and for all who seek God with a sincere heart.
February 18	February 19	February 20	February 21	February 22	February 23	February 24
First Sunday of Lent "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." (Mark 1:15)	"Lenten penance is a commitment, sustained by grace, to overcoming our lack of faith and our resistance to following Jesus on the way of the cross."  (Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2023)	Examine your conscience before going to bed tonight and make plans to receive the Sacrament of Penance during Lent.	"In the Sacrifice of the Mass the Passion of Christ is made present, and the body handed over for us and the blood poured out for the forgiveness of sins are again offered to God by the Church for the salvation of the whole world."  (Order of Penitence, no. 2)	Today is the Feast of the Chair of Saint Peter the Apostle. Pray for the Holy Father, who sits on the Chair of Saint Peter, that his ministry may help the Church grow in faith.	Fast from television, streaming, gaming, social media, or some other pleasure and spend the extra time praying or reading the Bible.
