Pentecost

Pentecost Sunday is one of the most ancient feasts of the Church, celebrated early enough to be mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles and St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. It is the fiftieth day after Easter (if we count both Easter and Pentecost). The second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles recounts the story of the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. "Pentecost" is from Greek meaning "fiftieth." The name Pentecost was originally given to the Jewish Feast of Weeks which fell on the fiftieth day after Passover, when the first fruits of the grain harvest were offered to the Lord. The second chapter of Acts of the Apostles begins by noting that the Feast of Weeks had just passed. The coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the Blessed Mother is the New Pentecost and replaces the former. As we read in the Acts of the Apostles, Jews from all over were gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Jewish feast. On that Sunday, ten days after the Ascension of Our Lord, the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary were gathered in the Upper Room, where they had seen Christ after His Resurrection.

Christ had promised His Apostles that He would send His Holy Spirit, and, on Pentecost, they were granted the gifts of the Spirit that descended upon them like tongues of flame. Being filled with the grace and power of the Holy Spirit they received, the Apostles were no longer afraid or unsure of how to proceed as disciples of Christ. They began to preach the Gospel right then and there in Jerusalem, and by the power of the Spirit given them, they were understood in all of the languages that the Jews who were gathered there spoke. Demonstrating the power of the Spirit to move hearts, about 3,000 people were converted and baptized that day. That is why Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." On this day, with the descent of the Holy Spirit, Christ's mission is completed, and the New Covenant is inaugurated.

Not only is this feast the birthday of the Church, but it is also a day that reminds us of our need to be open to the Holy Spirit in our lives. Even though the gifts of the Holy Spirit are present in all who are in a state of grace, like all gifts, for them to have value they must be used. That is why it is very important in our spiritual lives for us to know and pray to the Holy Spirit. Asking the Holy Spirit to enliven our hearts with an infusion of his gifts is a great start. Asking for the grace to also recognize the promptings of the Holy Spirit in our souls, is a great finish.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Mary: The Church's First

In the Gospel of John, we see the powerful scene in which Jesus gives to the Church his final gift: "Behold, your mother!" (John 19:27). Here we see Jesus inaugurating Mary's role as mother of the Church. Therefore, it should be no surprise that from the very earliest time of the Church, Christians have turned to Mary as their spiritual mother for her prayers and her motherly help.
