Holiness

A central theme to the Second Vatican Council was the universal call to holiness. In the document, The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, in Latin, Lumen Gentium, we read this about the Universal Call to Holiness: “...all the faithful of Christ of whatever rank or status, are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity; ...They must follow in His footsteps and conform themselves to His image seeking the will of the Father in all things. They must devote themselves with all their being to the glory of God and the service of their neighbor.”

But the call to holiness, individual and personal holiness isn't something new; it has been called for throughout the history of the Church. Many of the most profound spiritual writers of the church, such as St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, and St. Teresa of Lisieux, have taught that the spiritual life associated with prayer and holiness is something that we are all called to—adults, children, and teen-agers alike—and not something reserved only for cloistered monks and nuns. Reflecting on this the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, “All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity. . . All are called to holiness. . .” (No. 2013).

The root of all this is the mandate of Jesus that comes at the end of the Sermon on the Mount, the Lord's principal guide to holiness that he gives to us. Jesus says “So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.” (Matthew 5:48). We are to imitate the Father's perfection and holiness.

Only God is holy and we are holy only to the extent God lives in our souls. God is holy, because in himself he possesses the fullness of perfection of love. God enjoys the perfection of love by his very nature; we possess it only by sanctifying grace, which is the life of God within us, received at Baptism. Holiness is living the life of grace that God has given us. The grace, God's actual divine life within us, is what enables us to authentically love firstly God, then others.

It is through one's personal and individual holiness, sometimes called sanctity, that we attain the gift of eternal life. In fact, it is the only way. But holiness isn't automatic. We need to want it and to work at it. God's life within us needs to be activated and used, we are not spectators in our salvation; we are participants. Living the life of grace through prayer, practicing our faith, and following the commandments is how we keep the flame of faith and holiness alive in our hearts. It is through mortal or serious sin that we turn from God and extinguish his life within us. God can and will always restore us to life if we come before him humbly with a sincere desire to repent and do better.

The beautiful thing about holiness is that there really isn't any ceiling. We can always become holier. God is able to enlarge our souls to allow us to share in a greater way in his divine life. It is really for this reason we have been created; to live eternally with God sharing his divine life. We can and do begin that life here on earth. The holier we are in this life the closer we are to heaven. So let us choose holiness, let us want more of God's life in us, let us live the life that Jesus calls us to live.... “Be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect” so that we can enjoy the eternal life for which God has created us.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

STEPHEN MINISTRY

A Stephen Minister is able to provide: a listening ear, a supportive perspective, and God's Word to help us through the challenges of life.

For those who want to come alongside and support others in a more intentional way, we provide training to become a Stephen Minister. Through the training, you will receive practical, hands-on learning and resources to provide Christ-centered care and meet the emotional and spiritual needs of others.

To learn how you can become a Stephen Minister—or how a Stephen Minister can help you or someone you know call: 856-931-1979.

This week our trainees will complete their training and prepare to be commissioned at Mass. The last session of training, "Go-God Is With You!" is a time for review and inspiration as they prepare for the next stage in their caregiving journey. With the completion of their training, they are ready to provide quality one-to-one caring ministry on behalf of our congregation.

If you or someone you know could benefit from the listening ear, caring presence, and Christ-centered support of a Stephen Minister, please contact Karen Partridge, 609-970-7550.

We all need help from time to time, and your request for a Stephen Minister will be confidential.

OFFERTORY PROCESSION

If the Mass you are attending is for a loved one that you requested, when you arrive, please let the usher know that you would like to take up the Offertory Gifts.

A message from the Pastor. . .

Flu season is upon us! If you are not feeling well—cough, cold, fever, etc.—please take time to care for yourself at home. Don't try to come to Mass and make yourself worse and, at the same time, perhaps spread it to others.

Our 10AM Sunday Mass is live-streamed each week on youtube.com (Holy Angels Catholic Church Live Stream).

You can help take care of others, while taking good care of yourself, first!

God bless,
 Fr. Byerley

Dear Holy Angels Family & Friends,

At Holy Angels we are a Catholic School rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition with faith to grow spiritually. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing school environment. Our teachers care deeply and are committed to helping students develop fundamental knowledge and lifelong skills required for long term success. Ultimately, our school is a family with the goal of making the world a better place and helping each student succeed academically.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $10,000 in donations. As always, your support is necessary to continue building upon our outstanding educational programs.

In order to continue to raise the bar on educational excellence and update the ever evolving tools and equipment needed to prosper, we need your help. The yearly tuition covers a portion of essentials, but unfortunately not all expenses. The annual fund is one way for you to help us achieve the funds necessary for the school year.

Last year, we were blessed to be able to enhance our gym with a much anticipated score board! This year, we intend to use the proceeds of our Annual Fund to make additional enhancements to our Parish Center. The kitchen is essential to many of our clubs and events. Our hope is to use the proceeds to upgrade our kitchen so that it may continue to be an integral part of shaping our community and students.

Our goal of $15,000 can be achieved with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift would be a blessing that makes a lasting difference in our school community. Any amount helps, and no amount is too small. If you have the means, we ask that you please consider donating.

You may send your donation to school, or if you prefer to donate ONLINE please use this link::

Exorcisms: What Catholics Need to Know | Chris Stefanick Show

Scripture says, "Be sober and alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, solid in your faith." In other words, the Christian life involves spiritual combat. But a lot of Catholics aren't really familiar with this idea. So to start unpacking it, we're talking to Fr. Chad Ripperger, an exorcist priest.

Saint John Bosco: Mission to Love
