Corpus Christi and Eucharistic Exposition and Adoration

Today is Feast of Corpus Domini – The Body and Blood of Christ. Our belief in the abiding True Presence (and not symbolic) of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist is a central component of the Catholic Faith. Every time we genuflect to the tabernacle in a church (and especially participating in a Eucharistic procession like we do today) we both testify to our personal faith in the reality of Jesus present in the Holy Eucharist as well as open our hearts to the Lord's grace to reinforce our faith in His Eucharistic Presence. Praying before the Lord in the tabernacle, or even better during Eucharistic Adoration, has been encouraged from the earliest time of the Church to help us develop and come closer to the Lord.

During an audience the late Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI shared this beautiful address regarding the value of Eucharistic Adoration:

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

Today's solemnity of Corpus Domini, which in the Vatican and other nations was already celebrated this past Thursday, invites us to contemplate the great mystery of our faith: the most holy Eucharist, the real presence of the Lord Jesus Christ in the sacrament of the altar.

Every time that the priest renews the Eucharistic sacrifice, in the prayer of consecration he repeats: "This is my body ... this is my blood." He does this giving his voice, his hands, and his heart to Christ, who wanted to remain with us as the beating heart of the Church. But even after the celebration of the divine mysteries, the Lord Jesus remains living in the tabernacle; because of this he is praised, especially by Eucharistic adoration.

Indeed, there is an intrinsic connection between celebration (of Mass) and adoration. The holy Mass, in fact, is in itself the Church's greatest act of adoration: "No one eats this food," St. Augustine writes, "if he has not first worshipped it". Adoration outside holy Mass prolongs and intensifies what happened in the liturgical celebration and renders a true and profound reception of Christ possible.

...In life today, which is often noisy and scattered, it is more important than ever to recover the capacity for interior silence and recollection: Eucharistic adoration permits one to do this not only within one's "I" but rather in the company of that "You" full of love who is Jesus Christ, "the God who is near us."

May the Virgin Mary, Eucharistic Woman, lead us into the secret of true adoration. Her heart, humble and silent, was always recollected around the mystery of Jesus, in whom she worshipped the presence of God and his redemptive love. By her intercession may there grow faith in the Eucharistic mystery, the joy of participating at holy Mass, especially on Sunday, and the desire to bear witness to the immense charity of Christ.

Don't forget, we have Eucharistic Adoration Mondays at 7:00PM at St. Patrick's Church and on Fridays from 9:30AM-7:00PM at St. Matthew's Church. Come out and spend an hour with the Lord, it will be the best hour of your day!

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

*"Because there is one bread, we, who are many,
are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."*

- 1 Corinthians 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a Stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose.

One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth.

Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

GRAVE REUSE FOR CREMATED REMAINS

Grave reuse is an alternative option for owners of an existing burial privilege. Grave reuse allows for the addition of cremated remains to an existing grave, crypt, or niche.

Not only does this keep a family together and respect the deceased's personal wishes, but it follows the Catholic teaching of interring cremains on sacred ground.

Owners of a burial privilege can add burial rights for cremated remains depending on the type and location of the grave, crypt, or niche owned.

A member of our staff can advise as to what would be available for the specific location and grave or crypt type.

To learn more visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org or call 800-594-4980 and a member of our staff with gladly help you.

DIAPER DRIVE FOR LOCAL FAMILIES

Catholic Charities is seeking diaper donations to help local families and babies. With larger diaper sizes being high priority, the agency is asking for donations of diaper sizes 4, 5, and 6.

They are also kindly asking for baby wipes, too.

Currently, one in three families struggle to buy diapers for their babies. Many have to choose between buying diapers and paying for food, rent, or utilities.

To donate diapers, visit the Catholic Charities Amazon Donation Wish List at:

amzn.to/42h1o4V

When you donate through the wish list, the items are directly delivered to Catholic Charities. Your generous support is greatly appreciated.
