COMMUNION CALLS

For sick or homebound, call the parish office

Since this column has been pretty serious recently, I offer you a bit of humor...

A little girl finally got to attend a wedding for the first time. While in the church, the girl asked her mother: "Why is the bride dressed in white?" The mother replied to the girl: "because white is the color of happiness and it's the happiest day of her life today." After a little bit, the girl looks up at her mother and says: "But, then why is the groom wearing black?"

Shortly after tying the knot, a young married couple started arguing over who should make the coffee. Being a good Christian woman, the wife went to the scriptures for her answer. She said that the Bible specifically stated that men should be the ones to make the coffee. Puzzled, the husband asked her where in the Bible it said that. Very confidently, the wife opened up her Bible and said: "It's right here—HEBREWS."

Fr. O'Malley was walking down the street when he came upon a group of about a dozen boys, all of them between 10 and 12 years of age. The group had surrounded a dog. Concerned lest the boys were hurting the dog, he went over and asked "What are you doing with that dog?" One of the boys replied, "This dog is just an old neighborhood stray. We all want him, but only one of us can take him home. So, we've decided that whichever one of us can tell the biggest lie will get to keep the dog." Of course, the priest was taken aback. "You boys shouldn't be having a contest telling lies!" he exclaimed. He then launched into a ten-minute sermon against lying, beginning, "Don't you boys know it's a sin to lie," and ending with, "Why, when I was your age, I never told a lie." There was dead silence for about a minute. Just as Fr. O'Malley was beginning to think he'd gotten through to them, the smallest boy gave a deep sigh and said, "All right, give Father the dog."

This 85-year-old couple, having been married almost 60 years, had died in a car crash. They had been in good health the last ten years mainly due to her interest in health food, and exercise. When they reached the pearly gates, St. Peter took them to their mansion which was decked out with a beautiful kitchen and master bath suite and Jacuzzi. As they "oohed and aahed" the old man asked St. Peter how much all this was going to cost. "It's free," St. Peter replied, "this is Heaven." Next, they went out back to survey the championship golf course that the home backed up to. They would have golfing privileges everyday and each week the course changed to a new one representing the great golf courses on earth. The old man asked, "What are the green fees?" St. Peter's reply, "This is heaven, you play for free." Next, they went to the club house and saw the lavish buffet lunch with the cuisines of the world laid out. "How much to eat?" asked the old man. "Don't you understand yet? This is heaven, it is free!" St. Peter replied with some exasperation. "Well, where are the low fat and low cholesterol tables?" the old man asked timidly. St. Peter lectured, "That's the best part...you can eat as much as you like of whatever you like and you never get fat and you never get sick. This is Heaven." With that the old man went into a fit of anger, throwing down his hat and stomping on it, and shrieking wildly. St. Peter and his wife both tried to calm him down, asking him what was wrong. The old man looked at his wife and said, "This is all your fault. If it weren't for your blasted bran muffins, I could have been here ten years ago!"

A Jesuit, a Dominican, and a Franciscan were walking along an old road, debating the greatness of their orders. Suddenly, an apparition of the Holy Family appeared in front of them, with Jesus in a manger and Mary and Joseph praying over him. The Franciscan fell on his face, overcome with awe at the sight of God born in such poverty. The Dominican fell to his knees, adoring the beautiful reflection of the Trinity and the Holy Family. The Jesuit walked up to Joseph, put his arm around his shoulder, and said, "So, have you thought about where to send him to school?"

Have a great week!

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

CASSEROLES

† Joseph's HOUSE is a homeless shelter for men and women located in the city of Camden.

Your help in either making casseroles or donating supplies to this cause would be deeply appreciated.

Casseroles are delivered on the first Monday of each month, along with donated paper supplies, coffee, laundry products to the Joseph House.

For more information, and next delivery date, please contact Jerry Campbell at 856-435-0509 or jerbtemple@comcast.net

Joseph's HOUSE VOLUNTEERS

You are so very incredible to us here at Joseph's HOUSE! Whether it's heating up casseroles, delivering sandwiches, organizing donations, gardening, spending time with our guests, sharing our stories on social media or even hanging up artwork in our facility, the volunteers at Joseph's HOUSE are always ready and willing to dive in and help where necessary. We couldn't possibly do the work we do without your continued commitment to our mission.

Today, I'm messaging you about an urgent need: due to a variety of factors (chief among them inflation, the elusive unicorn of "affordable housing" and summer being our slowest donation season of the year), we are beginning to struggle with feeding our guests. Schools that used to provide a steady supply of sandwiches are off for the summer, groups that have been incredibly generous throughout the pandemic have, due to inflation, been forced to cut back on donations, and the cost of basic staples like bread, lunchmeat and peanut butter have continued to rise.

Currently, we feed about 75 guests per day. That's 225 individual meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner) per day, and 1,500 individual meals over the course of a week. That's to say nothing of those experiencing homelessness not rostered who also come to our door in need.

We are in desperate need of help, especially through these summer months.

If you have any resources which would help us as we try to maintain our cupboards, we would be most appreciative. We have volunteer groups who can make sandwiches if you'd like to provide the ingredients, and we also have room in those groups if you'd like to help us make those sandwiches. We have large freezers to store casseroles if you have the means and ability to prepare them. Several volunteers have offered to pick up casseroles for those who can prepare them but not deliver them.

Therefore, our immediate needs include:

Bottled Water, Sandwiches (PB&J or Meat & Cheese)
Individual Bags of Chips, Brown Lunch Bags. Casseroles

There are many opportunities for you to join us in our effort to respond to the growing needs in the heart of Camden. Any help you can provide would be most appreciated.

As always, thank you so much for all you do to enable us to serve these forgotten members of our community.

Please don't hesitate to reach out. Thank you for sharing in our mission.

GUEST DR. MICHAEL BARBER

How do we respond when we are asked, "Are you saved?" In this episode of the Augustine Institute Show, Drs. Tim Gray and Michael Barber discuss what salvation means, and how faith and works aid us in our journey. To learn more, check out Dr. Barber's book, Salvation: What Every Catholic Should Know!

LEARN

THE SEARCH CONTINUES: WHAT ABOUT CHURCH SCANDALS?

In some way or another, we have all been affected by Church scandals. In this episode of The Search Continues, Chris Stefanick and Dr. John Sehorn discuss how we are to respond to these evils. In doing so, they remind us to fight for the Church and perpetually call her members to live up to their callings.

LISTEN

TRUTH TO INSPIRE: ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, otherwise known as the "Lily of the Mohawks," became our first Native American Saint after her canonization in 2012. During her life, young Kateri suffered much ridicule due to her counter-cultural decision to remain a virgin out of love for Christ. As we celebrate Kateri's feast day today, enjoy this short audio book that describes Kateri's journey to Our Lord within the context of her native tribe.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MONTHLY BOOK STUDY: JULIAN OF NORWICH B. 1343

Julian is a fourteenth century mystic known for her positive theology written in her work: The Revelation of Divine Love. Many might be familiar with the writings of St. Faustina and her Chaplet of Divine Mercy, made popular by Pope St. John Paul II. Julian's work predates St. Faustina by 600 years.

Join me in reading the writings of Juliana over the next few months. We will meet once a month to discuss the assigned readings from her work. Her writings may give rise to questions, faith sharing and deeper insight into God's love for us and the beauty of our Christian life.

Our meeting meeting is on Thursday, July 28 at 7PM in the Parish Center classroom. We meet once a month.

HOW TO FORGIVE WHEN I CAN'T FORGET

Wednesday, July 20th · 10:00AM
St. Patrick's Church Basement

Do you struggle praying the Our Father, when you have to say: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others?" Are you holding onto something that doesn't seem forgivable? When you hear someone talk about forgiveness, do you get that cringe in your stomach? How can you forget something that has hurt you so deeply? Or maybe you know someone who is unable to forgive or wants to forgive, but still deals with the pain from the hurt.

What does God really say about forgiveness, justice, remembering and forgetting?

Please join us for this talk on how to forgive and remember.

For more information contact Brenda at olvbquinn@aol.com or 856-534-0400. Light refreshments will be provided.

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations,
the One God who is and was and always will be,
thy providence you willed that your Church
be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you.

Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ.

Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will,
that we may live in harmony.

Give us the grace to be united in truth
and freedom,

and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.

LECTIO DIVINA

— PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES —

The Lectio Scripture Group that began during Lent will continue to meet monthly to pray with the Scriptures.

Anyone interested in joining are most welcome. The group will meet on the Fourth Monday of each month, at 10AM in the basement of St. Patrick Church.

Remember, Lectio is a spiritual practice of reading a Scripture and slowly extracting from it meaning for my life. Guido II (1114-1193), a Carthusian Monk, wrote of this practice and saw Lectio as a "four step ladder" that takes one to God. He directs us to read a text progressively, four times: First reading: read the text. Second reading: meditate on the text, Third reading: pray on the text, Fourth reading: contemplate the text. It is a practice of taking the text ever deeper into our daily lives. Come and learn. Come join us. Next gathering is July 25th. Questions? Please call Jerry Washko at 856-845-6944.

STEWARDSHIP LOVE

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" -Like 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other?

The moral of the story is to live Stewardship by loving our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

Pray For Our Troops
*"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands.
Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need." We ask this in Jesus' name.
Amen*
