Value

When someone thinks about what is valuable, the usual answers will probably come up: money, precious metals, jewels, stocks, real estate, etc. And yes those things are valuable. But there is a possession of ours that is more valuable than all of the money in the world. And it doesn't matter if you are Elon Musk and a multi-billionaire or a homeless person living on the street. Both share this invaluable commodity. It is the twenty four hours that we are given each day by God to use.

We all make claims as to what (or who) is important to us. Another way of saying that is we make claims as to what (or who) is valuable to us. How do we actually show these claims to be true? By our actions of course. Just like saying "I love you" means nothing if one doesn't act in a loving way towards the person who is supposedly loved, so too it is for what we claim is valuable to us. And the clearest indicator of what is important to us, what is valuable to us, is how much time we devote to it. How much of our precious twenty four hours a day we give to something or someone is the true gauge of the value to us.

Actually, going back to the example of the difference in saying "I love you" and truly showing love is very much connected to the use of our time. How much of our time we are willing to give to another is very much associated to how much we truly have love for that person. We have heard often the admonition to "make the time" for something or someone. This is exactly what it means to love. To give of our most precious resource, our time, to another is one of the most central expressions of love. By "spending" our time on someone, we are eliminating that period of time that we can use for our own wants and desires and needs. It is truly the gift of self; it is love.

So we all should be asking ourselves about how we use our time (including us priests). How much of my time to give my family, my spouse, my children, my job, my hobbies, my church, social media, my friends, and of course God? For instance, there are 168 hours in a week. Sunday Mass is about an hour....that's just under 0.6% of the week. Even with a really long homily, it would still be far less than one percent of the whole week. Compare that to how much time during the week do we spend at the gym? Or watching TV? Or some other hobby? What about prayer? If one were to pray just 15 minutes of each day, that would be just about 1% of the whole day. Even if you take into account getting eight hours of sleep at night, 15 minutes a day of prayer would still only be 1.5% of the day. And compare that to how much time a day do we spend on our phones?

No matter what we claim, what we actually do with our time shows what is important to us. Perhaps a good summer exercise would be to inventory the use of our time and evaluate whether it matches our statements of what is important to us. If it doesn't, then maybe it would be helpful to reprioritize the use of our time, including the time we spend on the Lord, to keep it in line with what we say is important to us. This is the best way to use the great treasure that God gives us, our time.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

BOOK OF PRAYER INTENTIONS

Prayer Intention books are in the vestibule of all the church.

When attending Mass, parishioners are encouraged to write the names of their loved ones who are in need of prayer.

The book of names are remembered in our Prayer of the Faithful at all weekday and weekend Masses.

COMING THIS FALL!

STEPHEN MINISTRY

A Stephen Minister is able to provide: a listening ear, a supportive perspective, and God's Word to help us through the challenges of life.

For those who want to come alongside and support others in a more intentional way, we provide training to become a Stephen Minister. Through the training, you will receive practical, hands-on learning and resources to provide Christ-centered care and meet the emotional and spiritual needs of others.

To learn how you can become a Stephen Minister—or how a Stephen Minister can help you or someone you know call: 856-931-1979.

We all need help from time to time, and your request for a Stephen Minister will be confidential.

Pray for those Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, Marines and Guardians who are still standing watch over our nation. Many of them don't get to stay at home, but are being called to stand in the midst of those who are most vulnerable.

Our chaplains are there with them, tending to the spiritual care of military families as you are in your parishes.

Please pray that the Lord would protect and nurture the military and their families.

2023 CAMPAIGN UPDATE

SOUTH JERSEY
MINISTRIES APPEAL

Gifts to Date: $124,560

Our Goal: $155,500

% of Goal: 80.1%

"FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD"

Thank you to the loyal households that have donated to this year's appeal thus far. We invite all parishioners to participate in this important effort to make this year's campaign a success. Your help is needed if we are to attain our goal.

Please consider a sacrificial gift to help continue the mission of the Church here in our parish and in our Diocese. When our parish collects its goal amount, up to 10% is returned to our parish for our local charitable needs. Additionally, 75% of all funds received above our parish goal will be returned to our parish to foster our charitable and ministerial work. Thank You.

YOUR GIFT MATTERS!

STEWARDSHIP BEARS FRUIT

Every penny counts!
Thank you for your contribution - big and small!

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit."

-- Matthew 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God?

Gratitude and generosity are virtues of Stewardship that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.
