Mary, Mother of God

The feast day of Mary, Mother of God is one the most ancient celebrations in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. While it occurs on the civil calendar as January 1st and it might seem that we are celebrating Mary as Mother of God on the first day of the year, the actual reason for its placement is that this feast comes on the last day of the Octave of Christmas – that is, eight days after Christmas. For many of us, Christmas ends at Midnight on December 25th. But according to ancient custom, important events were celebrated for more than one day. In fact, Christmas is really celebrated for eight days. That means every one of those days is to be understood as part of the same celebration of Christmas. (This is done also at Easter and other important feasts as well). While our contemporary culture has a great, festive build up which ends on Christmas, our ancestors began their celebration of Christmas at Midnight Mass and then continued it for eight days, thus the term “octave” (from the Latin word “octavus” meaning “eighth” – incidentally that’s why October is called such, because it was the eighth month of the ancient Roman calendar).

It is perfectly fitting that the last day of the octave of Christmas honors the divine motherhood of Mary. The special bond between Christ and his mother came into existence at the Annunciation and continues to this very day. The Church celebrates this bond constantly in her liturgical celebrations, including the way the dates of the feast days themselves are chosen.

So, as we continue to celebrate the feast of Christmas, we should rejoice heartily on this day when we celebrate Mary as Mother of God for it reveals further to us the immeasurable love that the infinite and almighty God does have, to allow himself to be contained in the womb of one of his creatures so that he could come to save us....all out of love, love for us.

A Christmas Thank You!

I want to extend my sincerest thanks to the great group of parishioners who, once again, made our churches both look and sound so wonderful on Christmas. A lot of people put in a lot of time and effort to make sure that we celebrated the coming of the Prince of Peace into the world in such a beautiful way. Without question, during our Christmas worship we gave great glory and honor to God (as we always try to do) and I am sure that the Lord was well pleased (as He always is with all our genuine effort). So, once again I say a giant and heartfelt “THANK YOU” to all who made Christmas so special here at Holy Angels Parish and ask God’s special blessing upon you all.

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

*Happy
New Year*

Holy Angels Catholic School

211 Cooper Street, Woodbury, NJ 08096 856-848-6826

Dear Holy Angels Family and Friends,

At Holy Angels we are a Catholic School - rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition with faith to grow spiritually... We are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects in their school and parish.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $10,000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs. Our goal of $15,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference.

In order to continue the high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The yearly tuition covers a portion of our essentials, but not all expenses. The annual fund is one way that you can help us with the necessary funds for this school year. We intend to use the proceeds of our Annual Fund to enhance our Parish Center with the necessary equipment so that it may also be used as a gym. (scoreboard, padding, etc.)

Our goal is $15,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation.
Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please send your donations to school or you may DONATE online at:
