Below is a beautiful and profound commentary on the Epiphany.

The Epiphany is the feast of the manifestation of the majesty and divinity of the newborn Savior. As early as the third century, the Eastern Church, in celebrating the birth of the Redeemer, viewed it primarily as the manifestation of God to man. Hence the name Epiphany, which means manifestation, was given to the feast. Toward the end of the fourth century, as the feast gradually came to be known and celebrated in the West, the adoration of the Christ-Child by the Magi or Wise Men was stressed. Soon these sages were looked upon as the Three Kings.

In the West Christ's birthday had already been celebrated for some time on December 25. But with this feast was associated all the poverty and helplessness of the cave of Bethlehem; Mary and Joseph watched beside the crib in poverty, and the shepherds that came to offer their humble worship were equally poor. This aspect was lost sight of in the Feast of the Epiphany. It is true that the Magi found a poor, weak child, attended by poor parents. But through their faith they recognized and acknowledged the helpless Infant as the Redeemer and King of the world, and as such they adored Him, In the Feast of Christmas Christ is shown as man to a few of His chosen souls; in the Feast of the Epiphany, on the other hand, He appears to the whole world as God.

If the Feast of Epiphany is to be fully understood as the Church sees it, it will have to be viewed from two aspects: that of God who manifested Himself to man, and that of man, typified in the Magi, who responded with wholehearted faith and love. It is, therefore, a day of faith and grace on which no other prayer ought to take precedence over that petition of the Our Father, "Thy Kingdom Come!"
— Excerpted from With Christ Through the Year, Rev. Bernard Strasser, O.S.B.

I want to extend my sincerest thanks to all who helped to make our Churches look and sound so wonderful at Christmas. A lot of people put in a lot of time and effort to make sure that we fittingly celebrated the coming of the Prince of Peace into the world; in many cases they were true "unsung heroes". Without question, during our Christmas worship, we gave great glory and honor to God (as we always try to do) and I am sure that the Lord was well pleased (as He always is with all our genuine effort). I know if I tried to individually name everyone involved I would invariably leave some people out. Thus, if you would indulge me and let me get away with a general thank you, I would be very grateful. So with that said, once again I say a hearty "THANK YOU" to all who made Christmas so special here at Holy Angels and ask God's special blessing upon you all!

Have a very blessed Epiphany.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Throughout this Christmas Season, and always, please remember in your prayers all of our Soldiers and Families who serve across the nation and the globe. Their work is hazardous and puts them on the cutting edge of technology and weaponry. Many are in stressful situations at work and at home as the rigors of serving mount during the holidays.

THE CHOSEN—SEASON TWO STARTING WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5 7:00PM—ST. PATRICK CHURCH BASEMENT

Many parishioners shared the joy of The Chosen-Season One. This is the most realistic and compelling version of the ministry of Jesus that you will ever see. Come join us for season two as the ministry of Jesus spreads. Learn more about the lives and personalities of key bible figures as they struggle to understand God's plan with our Messiah.

Season Two-It is no longer a secret. The word is spreading that Jesus is the Messiah. Increased fame brings growing crowds, new disciples and more miracles. It also brings trouble.

Mary is confronted with old demons. The tension between Simon and Matthew explodes. James and John battle their prejudices and fiery tempers. However, they all continue to passionately pursue the man they don't always understand but will always follow.

Come and see season two of the global phenomenon that changes the lives of tens of millions of people with each new episode. Looking forward to seeing you on January 5. God Bless You!

Happy New Year!

Dear Holy Angels Family and Friends,

At Holy Angels we are A Catholic School – rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition with faith to grow spiritually... We are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects in their school and parish.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $10,000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs. Our goal of $15,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference.

In order to continue the high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The yearly tuition covers a portion of our essentials, but not all expenses. The annual fund is one way that you can help us with the necessary funds for this school year.

Our goal is $15,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation. Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please send your donations to school or you may DONATE online at:

JANUARY 2— FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

Reading I: Isaiah 60: 1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

Reading II: Ephesians 3: 2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

The Gospel: Matthew 2: 1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

The Gospel: Matthew 2: 1-12

The wise men represent the Gentile world in all its racial diversity coming to worship Christ. "The East" in this case could be Persia, Syria, or Arabia. They acknowledge Jesus as a royal Messiah.
