“Ordinary Time”

For the past two weeks the priests have been back to wearing green vestments at Mass. We have once again entered what is called “Ordinary Time” in English. But the term itself comes from the Latin Tempus Per Annum which literally means “time throughout the year”. Ordinary Time occurs outside of other liturgical time periods, periods in which specific aspects of the mystery of Christ are celebrated. According to The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar which is the handbook of liturgical laws that we follow during the church year, the days of Ordinary Time, especially the Sundays, “are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.”

Ordinary Time encompasses that part of the Christian year that does not fall within the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, or Easter. The Catholic Church celebrates two periods of the year as Ordinary Time. The first period begins after the Feast Baptism of the Lord. This first period of Ordinary Time begins on the Monday after the Baptism of the Lord. That’s why today is the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, without there being a first Sunday in Ordinary Time (as I mentioned above, Ordinary Time started last Monday). This first period of Ordinary Time runs until the Tuesday evening before Ash Wednesday. The Second period of Ordinary Time runs from the Monday after Pentecost until Evening Prayer is said the night before Advent begins. This includes Christ the King Sunday, the final Sunday of Ordinary Time.

Ordinary time of course does not mean “ordinary,” in the sense of being boring or regular and is not somehow a “break” from the Liturgical Year. The opposite is actually true: Ordinary Time celebrates, as previously mentioned, “the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.” Many important liturgical celebrations fall during Ordinary Time, including, Trinity, Corpus Christi, All Saints, the Assumption of Mary, and Christ the King. In addition, the Church continues to celebrate Saints days and other events. The major feasts, when occurring on a Sunday, trump the regular Ordinary Time Sunday lessons and liturgy.

During Ordinary Time, green vestments are worn. Green is the color of hope and in many ways should be our “ordinary” perspective on life. We are always hopeful because Jesus has saved us from sin and death; so let’s not allow this “time throughout the year” to be ordinary, but may the love and grace of God help our lives at every moment of time to be filled with hope.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

STEWARDSHIP SHARING

"Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared..." - Nehemiah 8:10
Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and through our Stewardship to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.

Dear Holy Angels Family and Friends,

At Holy Angels we are A Catholic School – rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition with faith to grow spiritually... We are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects in their school and parish.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $10,000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs. Our goal of $15,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference.

In order to continue the high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The yearly tuition covers a portion of our essentials, but not all expenses. The annual fund is one way that you can help us with the necessary funds for this school year.

Our goal is $15,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation. Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please send your donations to school or you may DONATE online at:
