Triage

Triage is the sorting of and allocation of treatment to patients, especially battle and disaster victims according to a system of priorities designed to maximize the number of survivors. For instance, the person who is severely bleeding from multiple wounds will be treated before the person with the broken arm. Triage is a pretty intuitive process; and we all pretty much unconsciously apply this principle in many situations, especially where we really don't have any "good" choices. The restaurant is out of the only thing on the menu that we like, so now we have to choose from the remaining selections of those items we don't really like. Which one do we choose? The one that we dislike the least. Of course, one's menu choice is an insignificant decision compared to who gets treated first on the battlefield or in a disaster, yet I used both examples to demonstrate how common and intuitive this process is. In fact, according to Catholic moral teaching, we are required to choose the least "bad" option when we have no good options to choose. But let's be clear. If there is a good, moral choice available, we must choose that good, moral option over any immoral choice. We can never justify an immoral action when we have the choice to do what is moral. But the principal remains, that if all we can choose is something bad, then we have an obligation to choose the least bad.

Our national and state election cycle reminds me a lot of triage. Aside from the "unlikability" of most candidates (which, by the way, is something we should NEVER fall prey to - casting a vote on whether we like a candidate or not - we should always vote on what the candidate stands for), voting in elections can be challenging. Pretty much all candidates have both weaknesses and strengths when seen through a Catholic lens. So how can a conscientious Catholic vote? Well, one, I suppose can not vote; one can vote for a third party candidate who is closer to our Catholic perspective; or one can vote for the "least" bad of the two major candidates. In order to be faithful to the Lord and his Gospel when voting, I think one would have to do a bit of election triage. There are many issues that touch upon our Catholic faith. While many are serious, there is still a hierarchy of importance, much like while a broken limb and severely bleeding wounds are both serious, severely bleeding wounds is much more serious. Just as, there are some issues that always take priority because of their importance and wide ranging cultural, moral, and social impact. And even among the priority issues there is still a hierarchy.

These "priority" issues are: first and foremost, respect for the dignity and value of human life from conception until natural death (opposing abortion, embryonic stem cell research and euthanasia). Despite the Supreme Court decision overturning the national so-called "right" to abortion, there still is a need to elect state leaders who will not advocate and promote abortion in state laws, but rather laws that protect life. In addition, the protection of the institution of marriage between one man and one woman as God has given to us, the recognition of the biological gender identity God has given us, the protection of religious freedom, and the advocacy for social justice and the care of the poor. If we are really serious about voting with a truly informed Catholic conscience, we would be voting on these issues and not about how we think a candidate will affect our wallets or whether we like a candidate or not. Unfortunately, when there is no truly "good" candidate, sometimes we have to vote for the least "bad" candidate, the one who we believe is least opposed to God's law. Because, ultimately, the more closely we adhere to God's law, the better and happier our civilization will be, the further away we are from obeying God's law, the worse off and more suffering there will be. This is what we should be thinking about during this "triage" election.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS—PART 4

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

Lift Up Your Hearts

The Eucharistic Prayer begins with a dialogue which describes the action to come—it is right and just that we should lift up our hearts to Lord and give thanks. The word Eucharist is derived from the Greek, meaning “to give thanks”. The series of prayers that follow this dialogue are central to the action of the Mass, but are all too often “missed” by those gathered whose minds tend to drift as the priest prays.

Hutzpah!

Before looking at the parts of the Eucharistic Prayer, it is important to know that they are derived from the traditional Jewish table prayers recited at the Passover and at the weekly Sabbath meal. The Jewish people prayed with attitude—with hutzpah. They praised God for his actions throughout history beginning with Creation and concluding with the present day. They thanked God for redeeming them through Exodus and with firm faith and hutzpah they would ask (petition) God to do it all over again for them today!

The Preface

At Mass the Preface, which is specific to the particular celebration (the liturgical season or feast) narrates the great saving deeds of God through our history which includes what he has done for the Jewish people. It reminds us that Jesus is our Exodus—that in and through him, his life, death and resurrection, and his sending the Holy Spirit (the Paschal Mystery) we have been redeemed and our sins forgiven. Catholics should listen to these words and with hutzpah ask God to once again, here and now—today realize our redemption by our participation in these sacred mysteries.

The Sanctus

This song of the angels found in the Book of the Prophet Isaiah recounts the prophet’s vision of God’s throne located in the Temple. Isaiah saw—the glory of God represented by the train of his garment and a cloud of incense filling the Temple—all of heaven and earth—every nook and cranny. To this is added, from Saint Matthew’s Gospel, the words shouted at Jesus as he entered Jerusalem on Palm Sunday—hosanna in the highest. “Hosanna” is an expression of praise and rejoicing addressed to the one who saves. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord reminds us that the Son of God deigned to descend from the glory of heaven; that he entered into the Holy City of Jerusalem to suffer and die for us; and that in this Eucharist, he comes under the form of bread and wine to save us today. It is with hutzpah that we should sing this hymn, our response to the Preface, and recount the great love that God has for us in sending his son redeem us.

Kneeling

The bishops of the United States requested and received an indult from the Holy See that has the faithful kneel from the end of the Sanctus until the Great Doxology. This change in position reminds us that we come humbly before God as we silently join the priest in prayer—attentively listening to the words of the Eucharistic Prayer. In doing so, the sacred actions at the altar also transform the hearts of the faithful gathered uniting them as the Body of Christ.

The First Epiclesis (Ehp—eh—cle—sis)

The words prayed by the priest after the Sanctus acknowledge the trinitarian nature of God who is indeed holy. It is God who gives life and holiness to us and who gathers us from the corners of the world inviting us to make a continuous sacrifice from the rising of the sun to its setting. Then extending his hands over the bread and wine, the priest calls down the Holy Spirit by whose power these gifts (and us) will be transformed—a divine, not a human, action.

The Institution Narrative

Faithful to the Lord’s command at the Last Supper, “Do this in memory of me,” the Eucharistic Prayer continues with the priest narrating, in word and ritual, what Jesus did on the night before he suffered. The telling of this story and the work of the Holy Spirit consecrates the bread and wine which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

Part of the ritual action has the priest elevate the Body of Christ (Host) and the Blood of Christ (Chalice). This dates back to the medieval Church when the faithful rarely received Holy Communion and therefore at least wanted to see the Host and Chalice. The priest then reverently genuflects in humble adoration and while not required, bells are often rung at this moment to add solemnity and too call the faithful’s attention to this moment. In the past, the church’s main tower bell would also be rung so that the faithful outside could pause for a moment of silent adoration.

The Anamnesis (A-nahm-knee-sis)

The Memorial Acclamation is a response made by the faithful to what has just happened at the consecration. Anamnesis is a fancy Greek word that simply means “remembrance”. This moment of remembering, however, has a triple significance. According to St. Thomas Aquinas, “The Eucharist (i) looks to the past, commemorating the passion of Christ... (2) it looks to the present, signifying the unity of the Church...and (iii) it looks to the future, prefiguring our enjoyment with God in heaven (Summa IIIa 73.4).

The Offering and Second Epiclesis

As the Eucharistic Prayer continues, the Body and Blood are offered to God—these gifts given to us and representing us—help us to learn to offer ourselves by joining our lives to Christ’s. He emptied himself for our salvation and calls us to similarly pour out our lives for others. Again, the priest calls down the Holy Spirit to form us into the Church—“grant that we, who are nourished with the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with the Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ.”

The Intercessions

Again, like the prayers offered by the Jewish people at Passover and Sabbath table, the Eucharistic Prayer contains specific petitions for the Church, the Pope, the bishops, for the members of the Church, for the dead, and for our future joining with Christ and the communion of saints in eternal glory.

The Great Doxology

Elevating the Host and Chalice, the priest says or sings a hymn that sums up what has just happened in the Eucharistic Prayer.

We have recounted God’s great love for us in redeeming us through his Son and sending the Holy Spirit to make us into his holy people. It is a recognition that everything we have is graciously given to us by our loving God. Our response in one word is profound—“Amen”—a word that means “I believe.”

All glory and honor are yours, for ever and ever.

About the Eucharistic Prayers

The Church in the United States has ten different Eucharistic Prayers to choose from. However, most often we hear one of the four traditional prayers.

Eucharistic Prayer I is called the Roman Canon and was exclusively used from the time of the Council of Trent (mid-16th C) until the Second Vatican Council—it is rooted in the tradition of the ancient Church at Alexandria in Egypt.

Eucharistic Prayer II (most people’s favorite since it is the shortest) is attributed to a 3rd C Roman priest named Hippolytus...but has its roots in the tradition of the ancient Church at Antioch in Turkey.

Eucharistic Prayers III and IV were composed during and after the Second Vatican Council but are likewise patterned after the prayers found in Antioch in Turkey. Eucharistic Prayer IV is unique because it comes with its own Preface meaning that its use is restricted to Ordinary Time on days not commemorating a saint or feast.

Other Eucharistic Prayers were also composed in the years after the Second Vatican Council—including those for Masses with Children; Masses of Reconciliation; and others adopted from other countries and focused on other needs.

THANKSGIVING FOOD CAMPAIGN

Conducted by the St. Vincent DePaul Society of Holy Angels Parish

As is the tradition in our Parish, our Thanksgiving Food Basket Campaign has enabled us to share our many blessings with those less fortunate.

Unfortunately. As we all well know, prices have increased dramatically, and as a result, we find many more families unable to meet their basic food needs. For most, a special Thanksgiving dinner would be an impossibility.

In an effort to effectively accommodate a significant increase in requests this year, the St. Vincent de Paul Society is partnering with Greater Woodbury Cooperative Ministries Food Bank to ensure that all who seek help this Thanksgiving can be served.

There are 2 ways you can help:

*Make a cash donation or simply write a check and place it in the poor boxes at each Church or mark an envelope "Thanksgiving Food Basket" and place it in the weekend collection basket. Every $75 collected will fill one Thanksgiving basket for a family of four.

*Donate Thanksgiving Dinner Staples: Stuffing mix, cranberries, canned vegetables, canned sweet potatoes, coffee, etc. Place them in a bag clearly marked: "Thanksgiving Food Basket" and leave in the designated spot in each Church.

NOTE: If you would like to donate a turkey DO NOT leave it in the church. You can take it to the GWCM Food Pantry at Seventh Day Adventist Church-corner of Evergreen & Barber Ave (parking lot side) on Tuesday or Thursday morning between 7AM and 11AM OR you can call SDVP at 856-848-7744, leave a message and we will try to arrange for a pick up.

ALL DONATIONS ARE NEEDED

BY SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13TH
BASKETS WILL BE DELIVERED TO GWCM FOOD PANTRY
ON NOVEMBER 15TH AND NOVEMBER 17TH

*"When I was hungry, you gave me food."
Won't you please share your blessings with those less fortunate this Thanksgiving season?*

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a sacramental process that prepares adults to be received into the Catholic Church. Persons who complete the process receive the sacraments of Baptism (if not yet baptized), First Eucharist, and Confirmation.

RCIA begins after each Easter season with a rolling open enrollment and continues to the following Easter season. The process is also available for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of First Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Deacon Vince at dvladini@outlook.com or 609-932-6170.

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd

As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Catholic Take on Halloween

Remembering the dead in purgatory, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

Purgatory by Dr. Scott Hahn

This remarkable talk is an essential resource for answering the various objections that Protestants make to the Catholic Faith, including the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of Confession, and the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.
