ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Upon request

The Corporal Works of Mercy (part one)

The Works of Mercy are found in the teachings of Jesus and give us a model for how we should treat all others, we should treat them as if they were Christ in disguise. These actions are split into two categories, each dealing with a separate part of the unified human person: the body (corporal) and soul (spiritual). The Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy have been part of the Church's faith from ancient times. This week we will focus on the first half of the Corporal Works of Mercy...what they are and some suggestions to live them out in our daily lives.

Feed the hungry

- Participate in food drives (especially our parish food drives) to help the hungry have something to eat.
- Research, identify and contribute financially and/or volunteer to organizations that serve the hungry.
- The next time you make a recipe that can be easily frozen, make a double batch and donate one to the local food pantry or soup kitchen.
- Try not to purchase more food than you are able to eat. If you notice that you end up throwing groceries away each week, purchasing less groceries would eliminate waste and allow you to donate the savings to those in need.

Give drink to the thirsty

- We take it for granted that we have access to clean water. Donate to help build wells for water for those who don't...something very common in other parts of the world.
- Organize a group of children involved on a sports team or youth group to collect bottled water to distribute at a shelter for families.
- Make an effort not to waste water.

Shelter the homeless

- Donate time or money to organizations that build homes for those who need shelter.
- Many homeless shelters need warm blankets for their beds. Donate them, or if you can knit or sew that would be an extra loving gift.
- There are millions of children and families who are on the move, fleeing from war, illness, hunger and impossible living conditions, and searching for peace and safety. Seek ways to provide shelter for the homeless locally, regionally, nationally or internationally.

We will look at the rest of the Corporal Works of Mercy next time....visit the sick, visit the imprisoned, bury the dead, give alms to the poor."

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

This day is perfect for anyone who is serving as a caregiver for a loved one whether living with or apart from the patient, managing their care at home or in healthcare settings, or assisting a primary caretaker.

This workshop will focus on self-care, offering practical strategies for your own well-being and balance. You will also gain insights into forgiving yourself through the tough aspects of caregiving like placing a loved one in a skilled facility and losing control of your emotions.

Take this day to care for yourself so that you can continue to care for others. The day includes Mass and lunch.
