Thanksgiving and the Holy Eucharist

We all know that it is essential that we make sure our hearts are suitably prepared before we receive the Holy Eucharist. First and foremost, we need to be free from all mortal, or serious, sin (if not we need to receive the Lord's forgiveness in the sacrament of Penance before we receive the Lord); we also should have fasted for one hour from food and drink; and we need to be in Church before Mass so we can consciously and prayerfully open our hearts to the Lord before we receive him. If all this is true (which it is) of what we do before we receive the Lord, how much more is required after we have actually received our Lord in the Holy Eucharist? St. Francis de Sales says it this way, "When the merchants of India have brought home their precious porcelain, they are very careful in conveying it to their storehouses lest they should stumble and break their costly wares. In like manner should the Christian, when he carries the priceless treasure of Our Lord's Body, walk with great care and circumspection in order not to lose the costly gift committed to his keeping?" This means that after Holy Communion we should spend some time in devout recollection and prayer. Making a thanksgiving after receiving the Lord in the Holy Eucharist is the long held practice of good Catholics and long encouraged and admonished by the Church and the saints. Reason itself tells us that a good thanksgiving after Communion is of even more importance than a good preparation before it; if we are required to pause and consider what we are about to do when we approach Our Lord, what should our devotion be when He is actually in our hearts?

In our busy world we have a tendency to jump from one activity to the next, and for the most part we don't have much choice about it. But when it comes to our spiritual lives, we have to take care to preserve the "sacredness" of the sacred. The principal way in which we do this at Mass is to give proper respect to the quiet exchange between Jesus and our souls that occurs when we receive him Holy Communion. This can only be accomplished if we ourselves take some time in silence to thank the Lord for coming to us and to reflect on the truth that God himself has just come into our bodies and souls. The dismissal prayer at Mass, Ite missa est, which is translated in English as "Go forth, the Mass is ended" is interpreted by most of us as a command to leave the church as soon as possible. But this isn't so. The word missa is actually part of the Latin word "to send". Thus, Ite missa est isn't just an announcement that the Mass is ended, but it is also a "sending" or a commissioning to bring the Christ that we have received in Holy Communion out to the world. How can we do this effectively if we have not taken a few minutes to become aware that indeed, Jesus is with us?

It was said that St. Philip Neri, one time seeing a man leave the church immediately after Communion, sent the servers of Mass with lighted candles to accompany him home. "What is the matter?" asked the man. "Oh," said the boys, "we have come to accompany Our Lord, who is still present in your heart." The Lord loves us very much and will be as close to us as we allow him to be. Taking a few minutes after Mass to thank the Lord for his presence in our hearts is a sure way to fully receive all the graces Jesus wishes to give us when we receive him in the Holy Eucharist.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS—PART 1

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

When does Mass begin?

Remotely, Mass begins when you are sent from Mass the previous Sunday as everything you do during the week is preparation for the coming Sunday. Key to this time is actually preparing for Mass by reading the Scriptures assigned to the next Sunday. They are easily available online.

In a more immediate way, Mass begins when you decide you are going to Church. The manner of your dress and the positive attitude you take with you sets the tone for your experience of the Liturgy. Remember your action is prophetic as those around you see you witness to the centrality of your faith.

Significance of the Church Bell

The ringing of church bells in the Catholic tradition dates back to the end of the 4th century and was sanctioned by Pope Sabinianus in the 604. Prior to this bells were rung by pagans to ward off evil spirits. While some of this understanding may have carried over in the early Church, today bells are rung to symbolize the Voice of God calling people to come forth from their homes or workplaces and to assemble for worship. At the end of Mass, the bells are rung to signify the joy that the assembly has in being sent as the voice of God to proclaim the Good News.

Arrival at the Church

Whether you walk to church or drive, once you arrive at the church grounds, your preparation for Mass should become more serious. Why are you here? What do you need from God? What is God asking of you? The church grounds should be well maintained so that the lawns, flowers, trees, statues and shrines direct attention to the sacred nature of this space.

Greeting Others before Mass

The communal nature of worship means that others will be present. Taking time to greet others is perfectly acceptable. At the same time, we must be aware of those who are preparing themselves for Mass by quiet prayer.

Entering the Church

The doors of a church are significant and symbolize the person of Christ who is the Way and the One through whom we enter into union with God. Holy water is placed near the entrance to remind us that we first entered into Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. Here we make the simplest of all prayers as we sign ourselves with the Cross and call upon the Holy Trinity.

Genuflecting or Bowing Profoundly

Before entering a pew or finding a seat, we take a moment to acknowledge God's presence among us by "bending the knee" in adoration, especially when the Most Blessed Sacrament is reserved in the tabernacle behind the main altar. Those unable to genuflect may make a profound bow.

The Purpose of the Introductory Rites

So far everything we have done has been done individually.

The remaining parts of the Introductory Rites are intended to "gather" individuals together and to make them one community that is ready to listen, to celebrate, and to manifest the presence of Christ.

The Entrance Song

The old adage reminds us that "those who sing, pray twice." By joining together in song, the assembly unites their voices and, if done well, lifts their minds to Sacred Mysteries about to be celebrated.

The Procession

The ministers along with the deacon and priest make their way from the gathering space to the sanctuary. In so doing, they are supposed to direct the attention of the assembly to the altar which is Christ. This is not a time for high fives or hellos, but of focusing on the mysteries at hand. The deacon and priest reverence the altar with a kiss acknowledging Christ's presence.

The Sign of the Cross and Greeting

Though all too often done without thinking, the Sign of the Cross at the beginning of Mass invites us into the mystery of the Holy Trinity and work of salvation accomplished by Christ on the cross. The words of the greeting which follow likewise make real this invitation.

The Act of Penance

After the greeting and welcome, the presider invites the assembly to a moment of silent reflection wherein each person acknowledge that they have sinned and are in need of God's forgiveness.

The Confiteor is one of the Acts of Penitence that may be prayed... I confess to Almighty God...it helps us to understand that we sin by commission and omission and that ask the Blessed Mother, the Angels and Saints together with those gathered to pray that we be forgiven. During the Confiteor we strike our breast, according to Saint Jerome, as a physical sign that we wish to dispel evil from our hearts. Only one strike of the breast is required even though the common practice is to strike the breast three times.

Kyrie Eleison is the Greek text for the English, Lord, have mercy. This phrase is meant to praise God as we call upon His mercy. The focus is not us as sinners, but on God who loves us despite knowing that we have sinned. The prayer of absolution that follows does not have the same effect as celebrating the Sacrament of Penance.

Blessing and Sprinkling of Holy Water is an option that replaces the two Acts of Penitence above. On Sundays, especially during the Easter Season, the blessing and sprinkling of holy water during the introductory rites again unifies the assembly which in this act recalls baptism, the sacrament through which we enter the Church, the Body of Christ.

The Glory to God

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will" (Luke 2:14) is an ancient hymn of praise, echoing the song of the angels at Bethlehem proclaiming Jesus' birth. Having asked for God's forgiveness, now we praise Him for His goodness. We can think of this as being meant to cheer us up in case we get down about our sins. The Gloria is omitted during Advent as a reminder we are waiting for Jesus to come, so we hold off doing anything joyful until His birth; and it is also omitted during Lent because, in light of our sins, we subdue our joy until the celebration of His resurrection.

The text elaborates on this message of the angels, recognizing the goodness and mercy of the Lord God through his Son, Jesus Christ. This prayer dates back to the sixth century and began to be used only at Masses when a bishop was the celebrant, and then only on solemn feasts. However, the beauty of this prayer captivated the priests and faithful. Slowly, permission was granted for priests to use it, but at first only for Easter. By the 12th century, the Glory to God reached its current level of use within the Mass. Today, the Glory to God is sung or said at all Sunday Masses, solemnities, and feasts except during the seasons of Advent and Lent. Even during Advent and Lent, the Glory to God is sung or said at weddings, ordinations and other festive occasions in the life of the Church. Whether sung or said, this prayer is one of praise, and our voices should be lifted in praise as we say it!

The Collect or Opening Prayer

Rather than Opening Prayer this prayer is more properly called the Collect. The presider announces "Let us pray." During a moment of silence, the assembly does just that as they call to mind their needs before God. The prayer which follows and is particular to the Sunday or the particular celebration has the purpose of "collecting" the prayers of the assembly into one and offering them to the Father in the Son and through the Holy Spirit. All are then invited to say "amen" (I believe) in unison having been made one body ready and willing to listen to the Word of God.

REDISCOVER THE LOVE IN YOUR MARRIAGE

Tens of thousands of couples have healed their marriages through Retrouvaille (pronounced Retro-vy).

If you know anyone who could benefit from this program, please pass this on. Couples learn to build communication skills and to increase intimacy. It provides help for marriage problems, difficulties or crises.

Upcoming weekend program is October 14-16, at the Family Life Center in Malvern, PA.

or 800-470-2230. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

Did you know that there is an estimated (at least) 350,000 Catholic Masses celebrated every day on planet Earth? It is celebrated in every nook and cranny on the planet, by every race and nationality, and using every language.

And each of these Masses is celebrated (generally) using the same scripture readings and the same prayers.

It is amazing to think about how we are connected with Catholics all over the world, praying together when we participate in the Mass. Even if we are at a Daily Mass that only has a handful of people in attendance, there are so many other people joining us in reading the same Bible readings and saying the same prayers we are saying.

The universality of the Catholic Church is one of its amazing attributes/ This is a great reminder that we are one body in Christ!

A message from the Pastor. . .

Flu season is upon us! If you are not feeling well—cough, cold, fever, etc.—please take time to care for yourself at home. Don't try to come to Mass and make yourself worse and at the same times perhaps spread it to others.

Our 10AM Sunday Mass is live-streamed each week

*on

You can help take care of others, while taking good care of yourself, first!

*God bless,

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

Saint Teresa of Ávila: A True Reformer by Christopher Blum

Dr. Christopher Blum unfolds the inspiring life of St. Teresa and her important role in the Catholic Reformation. After having already been a nun for twenty years, she had a radical transformation in her own life and then became one of the most powerful forces for bringing about conversion and positive change in the history of the Church. Listen and learn about this Mystic, Doctor of the Church, and True Reformer.
