Christ the King

Today is the last Sunday of the Church year. We literally begin a new year next Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent. As the readings of the day suggest, there is a focus on the end, when Christ the King will come and judge the world. It is not an accident that the Church presents readings such as these as we bring the year to a close. As Christians, we know that the end of this world is merely a transition for the new and eternal world under the kingship of Christ.

As we look to a new beginning in Advent, we look with anticipation to the coming of Christ. We prepare to celebrate not just his first coming in Bethlehem but also his second coming. At the same time, and perhaps even more important, we need to make sure we are also preparing ourselves for a new and more profound coming of Christ into our hearts. It is my deepest desire that all of us at Holy Angels Parish open our hearts to the transforming power of the love of Christ the King.

It is only in Jesus Christ that the deepest yearning of our hearts can be fulfilled. It is only in Jesus Christ that salvation is found. It is only in Jesus Christ that a true peace and joy which can never be dimmed is revealed. If only we would allow ourselves to humbly submit to the kingship of Jesus, we would have more than we ever could have as our own "king". Sometimes it can be so hard for us to see how submission to Christ and his love can be better than if we were our own rulers, but in the end acknowledging our place with respect to God our creator, is the only real path to the joys of his kingdom.

Perhaps a good theme for us this Advent might be to reflect upon the meaning of the coming of Christ into the world and how we are going to respond to his invitation to an ever deeper relationship with the King of Kings.

Happy Thanksgiving!

The first Thanksgiving is said to have been in 1621, when Governor Bradford of the Plymouth colony appointed a day for public praise and prayer after the first harvest, and the practice spread throughout the other New England colonies. The first national observance was when President Washington, at the request of Congress, recommended Thursday, 26 November, 1789, to the people of the United States "as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many and signal favours of Almighty God". This proclamation exhorted the people to "beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions, to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best".

Even though Thanksgiving is a secular holiday, we as Catholics recognize the vital importance of thanking God together with our fellow citizens of whatever faith, for the many blessings he gives to us and to our country. Gratitude to God most definitely needs to play a central role in the life of a believer.

As part of your family celebration of Thanksgiving, I invite you to come to Mass at 9:00am in the Church to give thanks to our loving Lord. You are also invited to bring bread or other food to the Mass where it will receive a special blessing and then be shared at the Thanksgiving table.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Did you know that there is an estimated (at least) 350,000 Catholic Masses celebrated every day on planet Earth? It is celebrated in every nook and cranny on the planet, by every race and nationality, and using every language.

And each of these Masses is celebrated (generally) using the same scripture readings and the same prayers.

It is amazing to think about how we are connected with Catholics all over the world, praying together when we participate in the Mass. Even if we are at a Daily Mass that only has a handful of people in attendance, there are so many other people joining us in reading the same Bible readings and saying the same prayers we are saying.

The universality of the Catholic Church is one of its amazing attributes/ This is a great reminder that we are one body in Christ!

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations, the One God who is and was and always will be, in your providence you willed that your Church be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will, that we may live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom, and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.

Flu season is upon us! If you are not feeling well—cough, cold, fever, etc.—please take time to care for yourself at home. Don't try to come to Mass and make yourself worse and at the same time perhaps spread it to others.

You can help take care of others, while taking good care of yourself, first!
