Advent and Evangelization

As we begin the holy season of Advent and get closer to our celebration of the arrival of Christ our Savior at Christmas, it is a good time to reflect upon the challenge that we as believers have in participating in the New Evangelization called for by all of our recent Popes. Evangelization, as you know, is the spreading the Gospel message of love and salvation to the world.

Amidst the often frantic pace of the Advent/Christmas season, it is traditionally also a time for getting together with family and friends. There is something about this festive season that seems to soften the human heart. I think one might rightly say there is a special outpouring of God's grace into the world. Because of this, we are offered an even greater opportunity to bring the Gospel message to those who may not normally be open to hearing it.

We don't have to be as radical or as outspoken as John the Baptist. But seeking to be reconciled with those from whom we have been separated, forgiving past hurts, extending true hospitality to those we do not normally get along with, generously sharing our material goods with the less fortunate - these are concrete ways that we can make the love of God known to others. Additionally, this may be a beautiful time to invite a friend or neighbor or family member to Mass or back to Mass; again, not in a harsh or confrontational way, but in a warm and friendly way.

In the end, proclaiming the Gospel is not as much putting forth propositions to be believed as it is in making known to others the love of God. This comes from the idea that our faith is not just about belief in a series of doctrinal statements but first and foremost it is belief in the person of Christ. It is not that the "what" of our faith, the content of the faith isn't important, but it is important only in reference to the "who" of our faith, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thus, in showing love to others we are showing Christ, who is Love, to them. It is a most effective way to spread the Gospel. As much as I hope and pray that the Lord comes into your hearts anew this Christmas, it is also my wish that you make the most of this chance to bring the love of God to others this Christmas. In doing so, you will not only be cooperating in a most important work of the Church, but also, I believe, opening yourself up to an even greater share in God's love for yourselves.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Did you know that there is an estimated (at least) 350,000 Catholic Masses celebrated every day on planet Earth? It is celebrated in every nook and cranny on the planet, by every race and nationality, and using every language.

And each of theses Masses is celebrated (generally) using the same scripture readings and the same prayers.

It is amazing to think about how we are connected with Catholics all over the world, praying together when we participate in the Mass. Even if we are at a Daily Mass that only has a handful of people in attendance, there are so many other people joining us in reading the same Bible readings and saying the same prayers we are saying.

The universallness of the Catholic Church is one of its amazing attributes/ This is a great reminder that we are one body in Christ!

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations, the One God who is and was and always will be, in your providence you willed that your Church be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will, that we may live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom, and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
