Baptism / Confirmation Sponsors

We are blessed with many may parishioners who are asked to be either a Godparent or a Confirmation Sponsor. It is a beautiful thing to be asked to be Godparent or a Confirmation Sponsor. But this is no mere ceremonial position. Taking on the role of Godparent/Sponsor is serious and the responsibility should not be accepted lightly. So serious is the role of a Godparent/Sponsor that the Church insists on a number of criteria that a person must fulfill in order to be one. There are a lot of people who may like to be a professional football player or a member of a symphony orchestra, but in order to be either one of those, or like many other roles, there are a number of basic qualifications that need to be met before one is ever considered for the task.

It is no different for Godparents or Confirmation sponsors. In fact, on a certain level it is much more important, since we are talking about assisting another on the path to eternal salvation. Taken from the various Church documents, below is the list of common criteria that one needs to possess in order to function as a Godparent here at Holy Angels Parish:

To be eligible to be a Godparent for Baptism or a Confirmation Sponsor one must fulfill all of the following parameters.

- Be a baptized, practicing Catholic (a practicing Catholic is one who attends Mass regularly and is sincerely devoted to his or her faith in Christ and his Church)
- Be at least 16 years of age
- Has received the Sacrament of Confirmation
- If married, the marriage must currently be a valid sacramental marriage in the Catholic Church
- Cannot be either the father or the mother of the person to be baptized or confirmed
- Cannot be under any canonical penalty whether imposed or declared

The above parameters must be certified by a signed letter and containing the parish seal from the pastor of the prospective godparent/sponsor. For Baptism, only one Catholic Godparent who fulfills the parameters above, is necessary. A baptized non-Catholic Christian may serve as a witness to a baptism together with the Catholic sponsor. He or she is not a godparent or a sponsor. This person must submit a certificate of baptism in the Christian faith. A baptized Catholic, who has left the Catholic Church and joined another ecclesial community, or who has fallen away from the practice of the faith, or who is not married validly in the Church can be neither a godparent/sponsor nor a witness. Only two godparents (one male and one female) for the Sacrament of Baptism or one sponsor for Confirmation is permitted.

As important and valuable as family and friends are, choosing a Godparent or Sponsor because of friendship or family ties, one may not necessarily end up with an ideal candidate. Ultimately, the question that needs to be asked is, "Who do I know that would be the best in helping me raise my child close to the Lord?" Or for a Confirmation Sponsor, "Who do I know that would be the best in helping me to be close to the Lord?"

I encourage not just new or expecting parents or Confirmation candidates but everyone to reflect on this. As our Lord said, "he who has ears ought to hear." Taking our faith and our relationship with God seriously, we need to both urge and support each other in love to take the selection of Godparents/Sponsors seriously helping to the role to the dignity and authority it is designed to have. One of the best ways to love a child is to do what one can to help him or her get to know the Lord and to get to heaven. Selecting a suitable Godparent (or helping them to select a Confirmation Sponsor) is an important element of one's role as a loving parent.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS—PART 5

THE RITE OF COMMUNION

Introduction

On the Road to Emmaus, the two disciples listened to their fellow traveler and their hearts burned within them. At table, he gave thanks and broke the bread and that action, they recognized the Risen Lord. At every Mass, we listen, we give thanks, and we share the Body and Blood of Christ so that in fact we may become what we receive.

The Lord's Prayer

The first preparation for the reception of Holy Communion is to pray the prayer that Jesus himself taught his disciples—reaffirming who we are as members of His Body. United in prayer to “Our Father,” the community acknowledges the holiness of God’s name which should never be taken in vane (Second Commandment). It prays for the coming of the Kingdom in its fullness and that God’s will, not our own, be done on earth just as it is in heaven. The community also asks for sustenance, most especially in the daily bread of the Eucharist, and seeks forgiveness and freedom from temptation and evil.

Gestures During the Our Father

No where in the General Instructions of the Roman Missal are directions given instructing the faithful to join hands for the Our Father. In fact, the practice is discouraged for the simple reason that joining hands can be considered intimate contact that may be difficult for some who are expected to hold hands with a stranger. While not forbidden, great care should be taken not to impose the practice at Mass. In the same way, only the priest is instructed to extend his hands during the prayer. The question “why?” should be asked when gestures not called for by the Missal are introduced.

Embolism & Doxology

The words spoken by the priest after the Our Father are called an embolism. With these words, he restates the assembly’s request for freedom from evil and sin, for relief from all distress and for peace. For all of this, we must rely upon God’s mercy, especially in this present time while we await the second coming of Christ. The people respond with an antiphon of praise. For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.

The Rite of Peace

This simple rite has been placed at various points in the Mass over the course of Church history—each with its own significance. For some time it was placed at the beginning of Mass between the Penitential Act and the Gloria as a way of signifying unity among the assembly. At other times it was placed before the Preparation of the Altar in keeping with the Scriptures that tell us to leave your gift at the altar and go first to be reconciled with your brother. It was, however, Saint Augustine who placed it where we find it today—between the Eucharistic Prayer and the Reception of Holy Communion. Here, it shows the unity of the assembly created by the Holy Spirit during the Eucharistic Prayer and which will be effected by sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ.

During this rite, the deacon or priest invites the people, let us offer each other a sign of peace. The sign given has and can be interpreted in accord with the circumstances. While a couple may wish to offer each other a kiss, a hand shake or a wave can be sufficient. People should not get upset when the person next to them does not wish to shake hands—they may be trying to preserve you from the common cold or COVID.

Fraction

There are two parts to the Fraction Rite—the breaking of the bread and the mingling of the Body with the Blood.

The Breaking of the Bread signifies that the many faithful are made one body from the one Bread of Life which is Christ. It is Christ Himself who feeds us and who is not diminished by being broken just as love given away is never lessened. We each share in the whole Christ.

The mingling of the Body and Blood of Christ is that moment when the priest breaks a small piece of the Host and places it into the Chalice. As he does so, he prays: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it. This action has a very long history in the Church’s liturgy. In the ancient Church, the bishop alone celebrated the Sunday Mass in his church. When parishes were founded to carry out the work of the Church more locally, the pastor of every parish participated in the bishop’s Mass and carried to his parish church a small fragment of the Eucharist. During Mass celebrated at the parish, this fragment was placed into the Chalice to remind all gathered that they were united to their bishop and the other parishes of the diocese. Again, emphasizing the unity of the Church.

The Agnus Dei

The Lamb of God is a 7th C addition to the Mass. Sung or recited during the Breaking of the Bread, it is an acclamation that provides the faithful another opportunity to praise God for the sacrifice of His Son, the Lamb of God, which has won for us the gift of salvation.

Quietly the priest prays: Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit, through your Death gave life to the world, free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood, from all my sins and from every evil; keep me always faithful to your commandments and never let me be departed from you. As a sign of reverence, he genuflects.

Elevation of the Body and Blood

Having prayerfully prepared his own heart, the priest raises the Host and Chalice and proclaims: Behold the Lamb of God; behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb. The word behold or in Latin Ecce should bring to mind several Scripture passages. The first, in the Gospel of John—John the Baptist points to Jesus and says “Behold the Lamb of God.” Then, also in the Gospel of John—Pontius Pilate presents Jesus to the jeering crowd saying “Behold the man!” And on Good Friday we say “Behold the wood of the cross.” The word “behold” has us fix our gaze on depths of a mystery—in which is revealed God’s love for us. The only possible response—Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed. Like the many sinners Jesus welcomed to his table, so we are welcomed.

The Communion Procession and Song

As we have seen with other processions in the liturgy, the movement of the faithful towards the altar for the reception of Holy Communion has a purpose. It is not a time to greet friends and family or to contemplate the hair style or clothing of the person in front of you. It is a time to seriously reflect on what you are about to receive—the very Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Communion Song is not simply intended to cover the sound of people moving, it is to encourage contemplation on the Mystery we receive—listening to the words and signing them can help one to prepare their mind and heart to encounter the Lord who gives himself to us.

How to Receive

The Church provides two options for receiving the Body of Christ. One may receive on the tongue or in the hand. The priest, deacon or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion presents the Host and states—The Body of Christ. Names are not to be used at this moment (the Missal does not call for it) because the encounter is between the Host and communicant—not the with the minister. The communicant should loudly reply Amen! Which means I believe.

If receiving on the tongue, the communicant opens their mouth and extends their tongue onto which the minister places the Host. If receiving in the hand, the communicant places their “writing hand” under their other hand into which the minister places the Host. Then using their “writing hand,” the communicant places the Host into their mouth.

Please remember that what we receive are the Body and Blood of Christ. It is incorrect to call the Sacred Species the bread and wine and displays a level of ignorance about what is offered at this most holy time. Return to your seat and give quiet thanks to God.

THANKSGIVING FOOD CAMPAIGN

Conducted by the St. Vincent DePaul Society of Holy Angels Parish

As is the tradition in our Parish, our Thanksgiving Food Basket Campaign has enabled us to share our many blessings with those less fortunate.

Unfortunately. As we all well know, prices have increased dramatically, and as a result, we find many more families unable to meet their basic food needs. For most, a special Thanksgiving dinner would be an impossibility.

In an effort to effectively accommodate a significant increase in requests this year, the St. Vincent de Paul Society is partnering with Greater Woodbury Cooperative Ministries Food Bank to ensure that all who seek help this Thanksgiving can be served.

There are 2 ways you can help:

*Make a cash donation or simply write a check and place it in the poor boxes at each Church or mark an envelope "Thanksgiving Food Basket" and place it in the weekend collection basket. Every $75 collected will fill one Thanksgiving basket for a family of four.

*Donate Thanksgiving Dinner Staples: Stuffing mix, cranberries, canned vegetables, canned sweet potatoes, coffee, etc, Place them in a bag clearly marked: "Thanksgiving Food Basket" and leave in the designated spot in each Church.

NOTE: If you would like to donate a turkey DO NOT leave it in the church. You can take it to the GWCM Food Pantry at Seventh Day Adventist Church-corner of Evergreen & Barber Ave (parking lot side) on Tuesday or Thursday morning between 7AM and 11AM OR you can call SDVP at 856-848-7744, leave a message and we will try to arrange for a pick up.

ALL DONATIONS ARE NEEDED
BY SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13th

BASKETS WILL BE DELIVERED TO GWCM FOOD PANTRY
ON NOVEMBER 15th AND NOVEMBER 17th

*"When I was hungry, you gave me food."
Won't you please share your blessings with those less fortunate this Thanksgiving season?*

JOIN US FOR: OREMUS: A GUIDE TO PRAYER

Saturdays, 10:00AM
St. Patrick's Church basement

Do you want to learn how to grow in prayer and to discern God's voice? Oremus, Latin for "Let Us Pray" is an 8-week series designed to teach you the essentials of an effective and fruitful prayer life. (You are welcomed to join us, even if you cannot make all the sessions.)

- Learn how to respond to God and express yourself in prayer.
- Discover how to hear God's voice in Scripture, in your heart, and in ordinary moments.
- Learn how to overcome frustrations, distractions and dryness in prayer.
- See that desolations and consolations are a normal part of everyone's walk with God.

Next in this video series:

- Nov. 5 Week 6 - Discernment in Prayer
- Nov. 12 Week 7 - Dealing with Distractions
- Nov. 19 Week 8 - Desolations and Consolations

GREATER WOODBURY COOPERATIVE MINISTRIES

Twenty-five years ago, eight Christian Churches of Woodbury began a joint ministry of feeding those with food insecurity.

The first site for this food pantry was located on the Woodbury Friends campus. In time, GWCM outgrew that location and recently, the Seventh Day Adventist Church became the new pantry. An auxiliary sight operates at the Colonial Manor Methodist Church.

Now, our church community membership has grown to thirteen churches in the greater Woodbury area. (Check our website at: www.gwcm.org)

The Ministry also sponsors a clothing shop called Jeanette's Closet. Those in need can, free of charge, obtain clothing and some household items. Jeanette's Closet is now located at the Central Baptist Church on Jackson Street.

GWCM provides a summer lunch program for local children in need.

GWCM has in the past sponsored ecumenical prayer services and inter-faith dialogue events.

Many parishioners of Holy Angels, over the years, have volunteered their service to the GWCM. Holy Angels collects food each week in the vestibule at the side entrance (parking lot side) of the church.

*Happy Anniversary to GWCM!
Please pray for this ministry.*

If you would like to volunteer, see Charlie Hughes or Jerry Washko, who are the current trustees on the GWCM board and represent Holy Angels. Their phone numbers are in the bulletin under Pastoral Care/Community Service.

We will visit the key sites found in the Gospels, including the birthplace of Our Lord, the Mountain of the Transfiguration, and the site where the Angel announced to Mary that she would be the Mother of God! We will have an afternoon of reflection on the Mount of Beatitudes and Mass inside the tomb where Jesus rose from the dead. We will ride a boat on the Sea of Galilee and have a special dinner with Christians living in Bethlehem, plus much more!

May 24 - June 3, 2023. Only $3,895.00 includes airfare from Newark, four and five star hotels, breakfast and dinner daily, plus most lunches. Excellent Christian guide. Mass every day in a place where Salvation History comes to life.

Catholic Engaged Encounter is a weekend away with other engaged couples which allows plenty of time alone as a couple to dialogue honestly and intensively about your prospective life together.

Ideas presented by a team of married couples and a priest or deacon stimulate personal reflection and private couple dialogue. Topics for discussion include: strengths and weaknesses, desires, ambitions, goals, attitudes about money, sexuality, children, family, your role in the church and society. The Sunday Mass celebration is an important part of the program.

Weekends are held at Pope John Paul II Retreat Center, Vineland, NJ. They begin promptly at 8:00PM, Friday evening, and close by 3:00PM Sunday afternoon.

Upcoming Weekend

November 11, 12 & 13, 2022

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a sacramental process that prepares adults to be received into the Catholic Church. Persons who complete the process receive the sacraments of Baptism (if not yet baptized), First Eucharist, and Confirmation.

RCIA begins after each Easter season with a rolling open enrollment and continues to the following Easter season. The process is also available for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of First Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Deacon Vince at dvlatini@outlook.com or 609-932-6170.

PLEASE BE SURE TO PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS.
LET THEM KNOW THAT YOU SAW THEIR AD IN OUR BULLETIN!

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of November 06, 2022

Blessed Duns Scotus

A Franciscan priest and theologian, Bl. Duns Scotus debated against the Dominicans in the thirteenth century, defending Mary's Immaculate Conception. Filmed in beautiful ancient monastery locations in Europe, Bl. Duns Scotus is revealed as a humble and courageous apostle of the Faith against the oppressive anti-Catholic government in power.

Can God Heal Human Divisions?

A tragic consequence of sin is human division, something we all face in one way or another. In this video, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. John Sehorn discuss how we can invite Christ into those situations of brokenness.

True Worship by Fr. Mike Schmitz

Father Michael Schmitz inspires and educates in this Lighthouse Talk about the highest form of worship—the Mass. Through this vibrant presentation, Fr. Mike makes sure that you will have a deeper and more profound experience of the Mass.
