Advent and Time

Even though Advent is coming to a close, it is still upon us. And therefore there still is plenty of time to rededicate ourselves to the Lord and our Catholic faith. No matter where we are in our relationship with the Lord there is always more to go, closer we can be to Him. We must always keep in mind that we can never become complacent with our friendship with Christ.

The Lord must occupy the first place in our lives, and if this is so, all of our other relationships will be more fruitful. We don't limit our other relationships by giving ourselves to the Lord; rather it is through our complete communion with Jesus that our hearts are expanded and we are able to love others more and be loved by others more. Sometimes in our hectic lives often burdened with great concerns and worries it is hard for us to see that our priority should still be our relationship with the Lord. But it is true.

Like anything else that is important to us, time, more than anything else, is the currency we spend to show what and who we truly value. The more time we spend on something or someone, the more important the person or thing is to us. Perhaps a good meditation we can use during our final Advent preparation for the coming of Jesus at Christ is to reflect on our use of time. How much time do we spend on things and people? How much time do we spend with and or for the Lord? Is the manner in which we spend the precious resource of our time consistent with the way we describe to others what is important to us? Prayerful and honest consideration of these questions will provide a good insight into our hearts and the people and things we value.

As the saying goes, "show me the money"; in this case it's more "show me the time". The concrete, practical steps we take on how we use our time will be the evidence we show in how we adjust the list of who and what takes priority in our lives.

There is nothing the Lord wants more than to be the center of our lives. There is nothing greater for us than for the Lord to be the center of our lives. As we continue our Advent preparation, may we be open to this awareness so that we can provide a welcoming heart at the arrival of our Lord Jesus.

God Bless You,
Father Joseph Byerley

Holy Angels Catholic School

211 Cooper Street, Woodbury, NJ 08096 856-848-6826

Dear Holy Angels Family and Friends,

At Holy Angels we are a Catholic School - rooted in Sacred Scripture and Catholic Tradition with faith to grow spiritually... We are a family with teachers who care and students who make our world a better place. Our faculty and parents work together to provide a nurturing environment for our students. Our teachers are committed to helping students to develop the knowledge, talent and lifelong skills required to succeed. And our students continue to participate in daily prayers, liturgies, and community outreach projects in their school and parish.

Last year, your generous support of the Annual Fund helped us to raise over $10,000 in donations. Once again, your support is necessary to continue our excellent educational programs. Our goal of $15,000 can be reached with your generous support. Your tax-deductible gift, of any amount, will be a blessing that makes a difference.

In order to continue the high level of learning and safe environment, we need your help. The yearly tuition covers a portion of our essentials, but not all expenses. The annual fund is one way that you can help us with the necessary funds for this school year. We intend to use the proceeds of our Annual Fund to enhance our Parish Center with the necessary equipment so that it may also be used as a gym. (scoreboard, padding, etc.)

Our goal is $15,000 and can be met with your donation. Please help us with a donation.
Every gift is a blessing to our school and every blessing counts!

Please send your donations to school or you may DONATE online at:
