Fear of the Lord

Below is a wonderful reflection from Saint Hilary of Poitiers, Bishop and Doctor of the Church. St. Hilary was a 4th Century Bishop in what is now France. He was a staunch advocate of the divinity of Christ and fought strongly against the Arians who denied the divinity of Christ. Below, St. Hilary writes about the meaning of "the Fear of the Lord" I hope you find it helpful.

*God bless,
Father Joseph Byerley*

Blessed are those who fear the Lord, who walk in his ways. Notice that when Scripture speaks of the fear of the Lord it does not leave the phrase in isolation, as if it were a complete summary of faith. No, many things are added to it, or are presupposed by it. From these we may learn its meaning and excellence. In the book of Proverbs Solomon tells us: If you cry out for wisdom and raise your voice for understanding, if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for treasure, then you will understand the fear of the Lord. We see here the difficult journey we must undertake before we can arrive at the fear of the Lord.

We must begin by crying out for wisdom. We must hand over to our intellect the duty of making every decision. We must look for wisdom and search for it. Then we must understand the fear of the Lord.

"Fear" is not to be taken in the sense that common usage gives it. Fear in this ordinary sense is the trepidation our weak humanity feels when it is afraid of suffering something it does not want to happen. We are afraid, or are made afraid, because of a guilty conscience, the rights of someone more powerful, an attack from one who is stronger, sickness, encountering a wild beast, suffering evil in any form. This kind of fear is not taught: it happens because we are weak. We do not have to learn what we should fear: objects of fear bring their own terror with them.

But of the fear of the Lord this is what is written: Come, my children, listen to me, I shall teach you the fear of the Lord. The fear of the Lord has then to be learned because it can be taught. It does not lie in terror, but in something that can be taught. It does not arise from the fearfulness of our nature; it has to be acquired by obedience to the commandments, by holiness of life and by knowledge of the truth.

For us the fear of God consists wholly in love, and perfect love of God brings our fear of him to its perfection. Our love for God is entrusted with its own responsibility: to observe his counsels, to obey his laws, to trust his promises. Let us hear what Scripture says: And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God ask of you except to fear the Lord your God and walk in all his ways and love him and keep his commandments, with your whole heart and your whole soul, so that it may be well for you?

The ways of the Lord are many, though he is himself the way. When he speaks of himself he calls himself the way and shows us the reason why he called himself the way: No one can come to the Father except through me.

We must ask for these many ways, to find the one that is good. That is, we shall find the one way of eternal life through the guidance of many teachers. These ways are found in the law, in the prophets, in the gospels, in the writings of the apostles, in the different good works by which we fulfill the commandments. Blessed are those who walk these ways in the fear of the Lord.

DONATE TO MID-ATLANTIC CATASTROPHIC ILLNESS FUND IN HONOR OF DYLAN MICHAEL MCDONNELL

Hello, My name is Randi McDonnell and I am so proud to tell you about my nine-year-old son, Dylan.

At the age of two, Dylan was diagnosed with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy, a genetic disorder that progressively causes loss of muscle. Unfortunately, this is a lifelong disease. Since that day, our family life has changed. Dylan is now unable to walk without falling and mainly relies on his wheelchair to get around. He needs specialized medical equipment as well as personnel in the home to help manage his care. Our biggest need for Dylan is a wheelchair accessible vehicle that can safely transport him to school, doctor appointments and physical therapy.

After all my brave son has been through, he still has a beautiful, bright smile on his face. He loves to play with his brother Shane, learning on his iPad, cooking, art and playing with our dogs and cats. Dylan is an honor roll student and has the most amazing imagination.

My husband Mike and I are doing everything we can to provide Dylan with what he needs. Our insurance does not cover everything. We are asking, from the bottom of our hearts, please help our family raise the funds Dylan so desperately needs. ANY amount will help. Thank you and God bless you for helping.

An offering from the AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE and IGNATIUS PRESS

"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need." We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen
