Saint Joseph, Patron Saint of the Universal Church

Yesterday was the Solemnity of Saint Joseph. Saint Joseph is the patron saint and protector of the Universal Church. Pope Pius IX, proclaimed him Patron of the Universal Church on December 8, 1870. In his decree Pius IX stated, “The Church, after the Blessed Virgin, his spouse, has always held him in great honor and showered him with praise, having recourse to him amid tribulations.”

Nineteen years later, Pope Leo XIII issued the only papal encyclical letter ever issued on Saint Joseph. In it, the Holy Father explained why Saint Joseph is Patron of the Universal Church, “The special motives for which Saint Joseph has been proclaimed Patron of the Church...are that Joseph was the spouse of Mary and that he was reputed the Father of Jesus Christ. From these sources have sprung his dignity, his holiness, his glory. In truth, the dignity of the Mother of God is so lofty that naught created can rank above it. But as Joseph has been united to the Blessed Virgin by the ties of marriage, it may not be doubted that he approached nearer than any to the eminent dignity by which the Mother of God surpasses so nobly all created natures...And Joseph shines among all mankind by the most august dignity, since by divine will, he was the guardian of the Son of God and reputed as His father among men. Hence it came about that the Word of God was humbly subject to Joseph, that He obeyed him, and that He rendered to him all those offices that children are bound to render to their parents. From this twofold dignity flowed the obligation which nature lays upon the head of families, so that Joseph became the guardian, the administrator, and the legal defender of the divine house whose chief he was. And during the whole course of his life he fulfilled those charges and those duties. And for such reasons the Blessed Patriarch (St. Joseph) looks upon the multitude of Christians who make up the Church as confided specially to his trust—this limitless family spread over the earth, over which, because he is the spouse of Mary and the Father of Jesus Christ he holds, as it were, a paternal authority. It is, then, natural and worthy that as the Blessed Joseph ministered to all the needs of the family at Nazareth and girt it about with his protection, he should now cover with the cloak of his heavenly patronage and defend the Church of Jesus Christ.”

Pope Saint John Paul II also discussed the importance of Saint Joseph’s patronage in our day, “This patronage must be invoked as ever necessary for the Church, not only as a defense against all dangers, but also, and indeed primarily, as an impetus for her renewed commitment to evangelization in the world and to re-evangelization in those lands and nations where religion and the Christian life were formerly flourishing and...are now put to a hard test.”

As we honor Saint Joseph, let us be ever mindful of his particular connection to the Lord and so understand just how powerful his intercession can be. Trusting in this, we call upon him, to guide and protect our parish family as he did the Holy Family. St. Joseph, pray for us!

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

WATCH

THE SANCTUARY COURSE FOR CATHOLICS

Misconceptions surrounding mental illness can prevent us from responding well to those suffering. This eight-session course explores the realities of mental illness, as well as the need for faith-based conversations about this topic. Featuring stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.

LEARN

A BIBLE STUDY ON THE ANNUNCIATION

In this video, Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief study of Luke 1:26-38, highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's Yes in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.

LISTEN

SAY YES TO CHRIST: ALLOWING JESUS TO BE THE LORD OF YOUR WHOLE LIFE BY SCOTT HAHN

Mary conformed the entirety of her life to the Divine Will. In doing so, she became the model of perfect discipleship. In this talk, Dr. Scott Hahn discusses why we too should surrender our lives to the Lord.

These ministries serve the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the House of Charity, we can bring the light of hope to those in the Catholic community in South Jersey.

In addition to supporting the many Diocesan ministries, when our parish collects its goal amount, up to 10% is returned to our parish for our local charitable needs!

EVERY GIFT COUNTS!

STEWARDSHIP ALIVE

"...He said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.'" - Luke 13:7
We can all be like the barren fig tree at times. Do you cling to what you have or do you live Stewardship by generously sharing with others? How will you respond when God asks you what you have done with all the gifts He has given you? Remember, not only are we called to be generous, we are called to develop and nurture our gifts, and return them with increase. Remember, we are called to be generous with all of our gifts; especially the ones that means the most to us.

iRace4Vocations

Join Bishop Sullivan along with priests, religious, our seminarians and many people from throughout the Diocese on Sunday, April 3rd, at Cooper River Park (Jack Curtis Stadium, 5300 North Park Drive, Pennsauken) for our annual iRace4Vocations.

Bishop Sullivan will celebrate a Mass for Vocations at 1PM followed by our 5K run/1 mile family walk. Come out to pray and race!

The day will end with a picnic and family fun. Help us enjoy the day as we raise awareness and offer prayers for an increase in vocations for our diocese.

CATHEDRAL CLOTHING STORE

Cathedral Clothing Store, located on Broadway Street underneath the Diocesan Chancery Offices in Camden, has reopened. Currently, they are open on Wednesdays from 10AM to 1PM. They have free clothing for children to adults for those in need. There are dress pants, suitcoats, and dresses for adults who may want to make a modest offering. Great for job interviews, weddings, and other formal occasions!

If you know of anyone in need, please send them to the Cathedral Clothing Store on Broadway in Camden. As the store gains in popularity, it will be open on Mondays and Fridays as well.

Gathered in the presence of Christ we sing uncomplicated, repetitive songs, uncluttered by too many words, allowing the mystery of God to become tangible through the beauty of simplicity. A few words sung over and over again reinforces the meditative quality of prayer. They express a basic reality of faith that can quickly be grasped by the intellect and that gradually penetrates the whole being.
