The Holy Eucharist

The Second Vatican Council calls the Most Holy Eucharist the “source and summit of Christian worship”. The Holy Eucharist is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. Our faith believes that the Holy Eucharist, or Holy Communion, is not merely a symbol of Jesus Christ but really is Jesus. His whole self. That is, each particle of the Sacred Host, each drop of the Precious Blood, is entirely Jesus, not a part of Him.

At Mass, the bread and wine are offered to the Father in the very same manner as Jesus offered up bread and wine at the Last Supper. During that sacred meal, the first Mass, he spoke the words that every priest says at every Mass, “This is my body...this is my blood.” As the Lord gave himself to his Apostles at the Last supper, he gives himself to us at Mass. We believe that through the words of Christ spoken through the priest at the Consecration, the bread and wine are transformed into the body and blood of Christ. We call that process transubstantiation, where the substance of the bread and wine are changed into the substance of Christ, his very own living and true presence. Although still appearing to be bread and wine, the true substance is now Jesus. That is why it is so important that during the Consecration, we give our fullest attention to what is happening on the altar; Jesus is transforming the bread and wine to himself. It is not the time for a bathroom trip or a conversation, it is the time to lovingly adore and acknowledge the presence of our Savior in our midst.

While we may for ease of description say, “the Body of Christ” or “the Blood of Christ” it is important to remember that, as mentioned earlier, “each particle of the Sacred Host, each drop of the Precious Blood, is entirely Jesus”. Thus there is no actual distinction with regard to the presence of Jesus in the Host or the Precious Blood, he is equally and fully present in both. Therefore when receive Holy Communion, we don’t get “more Jesus” if we receive under both species (the Host and the Precious Blood), for when we receive the Holy Eucharist in just the Host, or just the Precious Blood, or both, we receive the full presence of our Lord into our souls.

Since it is our faith that we are actually receiving the Lord into our souls when we receive Holy Communion at Mass, we need to constantly remind ourselves that we need to be spiritually prepared as well as suitably prepared to receive him. If we are conscious of having committed a serious or mortal sin (such as missing Mass without a grave reason) and have broken our communion with the Lord, we should not receive the Holy Eucharist until we have reestablished our communion with him through the sacrament of Penance. Otherwise our “communion” is a mockery and a sacrilege. Jesus has given us the greatest gift when he gave us himself. We have the tremendous opportunity to receive him at each Mass. May we do so with the utmost reverence and love so that the fullness of what he offers us may be ours.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

THE PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION IS APPLIED TO THESE PROGRAMS:

Faith, Memory & Culture – The Holy Places
Holy Land Franciscans and staff maintain the holy places and shrines. This enables those who live in the Holy Land and those who visit to deepen their faith and their spiritual and cultural connection to salvation history.

Social & Charitable Activities

In order to assist Christians to remain in the Holy Land, including the poor and young couples, the Custody builds thousands of residential units. Additionally, they build senior care facilities. Medical assistance is provided for the needy.

Educational & Scientific Activities

The Franciscans operate and support schools open to all, regardless of religion or nationality. They provide scholarships for young men to answer the call to become Franciscan priests and brothers. Additionally, Franciscan archaeologists pursue ongoing research at the Holy Places.

Pastoral Activities

The Franciscans provide pastoral care in 29 parishes in the Holy Land offering worship, Christian formation, and necessary youth and family programs, especially in regions affected by war.

Liturgical, Ecumenical and Communications Programs

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of March 26, 2023

The Hour of Our Death Eternal Rest Episode 3

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Church. This session, we discover the role of this sacramental anointing in the spiritual struggle during serious illness, the final stages of our temporal life, and the hour of our death.

The Paschal Mystery: The Mystery of Jesus' Death

Through Jesus's Death on the Cross, God reveals himself most profoundly as the God who is love. Christ's sacrificial love saves us from sin and shows us the pathway to true human happiness. We are made to live like Christ: in total, self-giving love.

Living Lent as a Family (Part 4 of 4)

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Kevin and Lisa Cotter to discuss liturgical living during Lent as a family. They discuss together about a variety of topics, including having a prayer space in the home and decorating the home according to the liturgical season.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription. Visit signup.formed.org and select our parish name.

An offering from the AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE and IGNATIUS PRESS

"Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform in our time of need." We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen
