Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization (Part 1)

There is a lot of fear-mongering going on right now about Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization after the improperly and illegally leaked draft opinion of Supreme Court Justice Alito. What follows is the first of a series that will help to explain the current situation and some potential outcomes. A great place to start is to answer some questions.

"What is this Dobbs case, anyway? What is supposed to happen?"

- In May of 2021, the Supreme Court agreed to hear the case, Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization. The case involves a law in Mississippi that bans most abortions after the baby reaches 15 weeks. Jackson Women's Health, as the only abortion provider in the state of Mississippi, sued, saying that the law is in direct violation of Roe v. Wade. In response, Mississippi essentially asked the Supreme Court to overturn Roe v. Wade as bad law, and barring that, to at least allow states to limit pre-viability abortions.
- While it is impossible to speculate what will happen, we hope that the Supreme Court will do the right thing and allow states to once again limit or prohibit abortion, and in doing so, protect millions of preborn children and their mothers from this tragedy.
- "If Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health overturns Roe v. Wade, doesn't that mean women in the US will no longer be able to get abortions?"
- No. All that this decision could mean is that each state will decide which restrictions it will allow on abortion. In states such as California and Vermont, abortion will continue to be permitted at least up until 24 weeks (when evidence shows that preborn babies can feel pain and have a also have a reasonable chance of survival if delivered).
- "Isn't having a 'patchwork' of different state laws on abortion dangerous?"
- States, according to the Constitution are supposed to have the freedom to make decisions and legislate for the "health, safety, and welfare" of citizens within their borders. Since our country's inception, states have enacted differing laws on almost every issue imaginable. Yet as of right now, the Supreme Court decisions in Roe v. Wade (1973) and Planned Parenthood v. Casey (1992) prevent the American people, through their elected representatives, from fully protecting pre-born human life.
- Fears about thousands of women dying from back-alley abortions should abortion laws return to the states have been proven to be unfounded, as the claims that thousands of women were dying from illegal abortions at the time of Roe were made up for political purposes. The late Dr. Bernard Nathanson, a chief advocate for legalizing abortion, said he and his fellow advocates invented the "nice, round shocking figure" of "5,000 to 10,000 deaths a year" from illegal abortions. While any death is a tragedy, the number of deaths from "back alley" abortions do not approach these numbers. In 1966, before the first state legalized abortion, 120 mothers died from abortion. In 1972, when abortion was still illegal in 80 percent of the country, the number dropped to 39 maternal deaths from abortion.
- Further, women seeking abortion are overwhelmingly not seeking abortion to protect their health from a "dangerous" pregnancy. In fact, women seeking abortions overwhelmingly report they are not doing so for "health" reasons: a 2013 survey shows only 6% cited any concern for their own health among the reasons for the abortion. That is, then, 96% of abortions are because the mother does not want the child.
- In addition, a groundbreaking 2012 study of abortion in Chile published in a peer-reviewed scientific journal found that Chile's abortion prohibition in 1989 did not cause an increase in the maternal mortality rate (MMR).

Part 2 coming soon.

God bless you, Father Joseph Byerley

WATCH

THE WILD GOOSE: GOD'S LOVE POURED OUT

During the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we remember a fundamental pillar of our Faith: "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8). This simple statement is the beginning and the ending of our pilgrimage of Faith. In this episode of The Wild Goose, join Fr. Dave Pivonka as he illuminates God's eternal pouring out of Love.

LEARN

SYMBOLON: EP. 1 - THE JOURNEY: TRINITY, FAITH AND THE GOD WHO IS LOVE

The Bible reveals the mystery of who God is: God is love. God created us out of love, died for us out of love, and invites us on a journey of faith in which we live in his love. In this study, we'll look at the God who is Love and how that love shows itself in the Trinity and the Faith.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The Knights of Columbus (K of C) serving our parish are happy to announce the merger of two of the organization's local councils into one. This merger will go a long way to helping the K of C combine their efforts and ideas to serve Holy Angels Parish, its School, local communities and national/international endeavors even more effectively.

The newly united council includes the former Most Holy Redeemer Council 11713 and Monsignor C.G. McCorristin Council 1994. It will now be known as Saint Patrick Council 11713. With its combined membership and resources, the Saint Patrick K of C looks forward to meeting the needs of our parish, our Mother Church and the world.

The K of C, a Catholic fraternal organization, counts nearly two million members in countries across the globe. Its charitable works range from helping meet the needs of local parishes and Catholic schools to aiding major relief efforts in the U.S. and abroad.

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations, the One God who is and was and always will be, in your providence you willed that your Church be united to the suffering of your Son. Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples. May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will, that we may live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom.

and to always seek your will in our lives. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.
