Tolerance

According to Dictionary.com the principal definition for tolerance is: a fair, objective, and permissive attitude toward those whose opinions, practices, race, religion, nationality, etc., differ from one's own; freedom from bigotry. That's not a bad start but it is a somewhat distorted modern spin on the root meaning of the word. The definition of tolerance on the Merriam-Webster site is this: capacity to endure pain or hardship: endurance, fortitude, stamina. This definition is more in keeping with the original meaning which we have received from the Latin word "tolerare" which means "to bear, endure". We "tolerate" something that displeases us. We don't "tolerate" chocolate or pizza or a nice wine (unless we don't like them to begin with). We tolerate Aunt Matilda's horrible fruit cake (at least in front of her), we might tolerate the person in the express line with a full cart of groceries, and we tolerate our nosey neighbor's constant questions. In all these examples, we tolerate, or endure, things that we don't like, things that displease us; we don't tolerate things we like. That's what toleration means.

When it comes to people's views on different issues, the same sense of tolerance should come in to play, we "endure" or "bear" the opinion or view that we don't like or with which we don't agree. But do we? Should we? Yes, we should. But it seems in our culture today that when we are told to "be tolerant" we are not merely being asked to endure something we don't like, what we are really being told to do is to approve and support something with which we disagree. And when someone resists approving or supporting something, the person is called intolerant.

In 1931, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen (well known for his writing and preaching and especially his work on television and radio) took quite a different track in an essay he wrote entitled: "A Plea for Intolerance". It's interesting to note that what we are experiencing today isn't all that new. Here is a quote from the essay:

America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance—it is not. It is suffering from tolerance. Tolerance of right and wrong, truth and error, virtue and evil, Christ and chaos. Our country is not nearly so overrun with the bigoted as it is overrun with the broadminded. . . . Tolerance is an attitude of reasoned patience toward evil, a forbearance that restrains us from showing anger or inflicting punishment. Tolerance applies only to persons, never to truth. Tolerance applies to the erring, intolerance to the error. . . . Architects are as intolerant about sand as foundations for skyscrapers as doctors are intolerant about germs in the laboratory. Tolerance does not apply to truth or principles. About these things we must be intolerant, and for this kind of intolerance, so much needed to rouse us from sentimental gush, I make a plea. Intolerance of this kind is the foundation of all stability.

It is worthwhile noting the wisdom here. For too long the cultural discussion had been too often led and controlled by those, who in many ways, deny fundamental truths about humanity. All in the name of a warped one-sided view of tolerance that states, "you must tolerate (accept and support) me and my position but I don't have to tolerate you". Perhaps we should take Venerable Fulton J. Sheen's words to heart and start standing up without fear and with ardent passion for the truths in which we believe. Because if we don't, we will likely be beaten down into little dark holes and forced to obey by the so called "tolerant" culture of today.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

CASSEROLES

Joseph's HOUSE is a homeless shelter for men and women located in the city of Camden.

Your help in either making casseroles or donating supplies to this cause would be deeply appreciated.

Casseroles are delivered on the first Monday of each month, along with donated paper supplies, coffee, laundry products to the Joseph House.

For more information, and next delivery date, please contact Jerry Campbell at 856-435-0509 or jerbotemple@comcast.net

Joseph's HOUSE VOLUNTEERS

You are so very incredible to us here at Joseph's HOUSE! Whether it's heating up casseroles, delivering sandwiches, organizing donations, gardening, spending time with our guests, sharing our stories on social media or even hanging up artwork in our facility, the volunteers at Joseph's HOUSE are always ready and willing to dive in and help where necessary. We couldn't possibly do the work we do without your continued commitment to our mission.

Today, I'm messaging you about an urgent need: due to a variety of factors (chief among them inflation, the elusive unicorn of "affordable housing" and summer being our slowest donation season of the year), we are beginning to struggle with feeding our guests. Schools that used to provide a steady supply of sandwiches are off for the summer, groups that have been incredibly generous throughout the pandemic have, due to inflation, been forced to cut back on donations, and the cost of basic staples like bread, lunchmeat and peanut butter have continued to rise.

Currently, we feed about 75 guests per day. That's 225 individual meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner) per day, and 1,500 individual meals over the course of a week. That's to say nothing of those experiencing homelessness not rostered who also come to our door in need.

We are in desperate need of help, especially through these summer months.

If you have any resources which would help us as we try to maintain our cupboards, we would be most appreciative. We have volunteer groups who can make sandwiches if you'd like to provide the ingredients, and we also have room in those groups if you'd like to help us make those sandwiches. We have large freezers to store casseroles if you have the means and ability to prepare them. Several volunteers have offered to pick up casseroles for those who can prepare them but not deliver them.

Therefore, our immediate needs include:

- Bottled Water
- Sandwiches (PB&J or Meat & Cheese)
- Individual Bags of Chips
- Brown Lunch Bags
- Casseroles

There are many opportunities for you to join us in our effort to respond to the growing needs in the heart of Camden. Any help you can provide would be most appreciated.

As always, thank you so much for all you do to enable us to serve these forgotten members of our community.

Please don't hesitate to reach out. Thank you for sharing in our mission.

WATCH

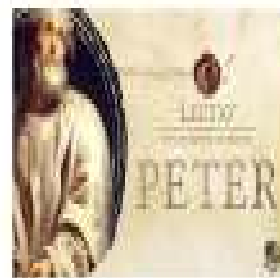

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

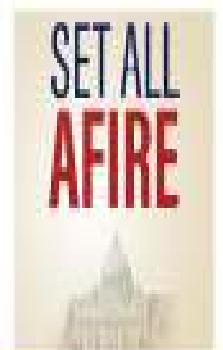

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

LISTEN

SET ALL AFIRE

It is no stretch to say that Peter and Paul set the world afire with the Gospel message. In honor of these apostles, enjoy this one-of-a-kind presentation that includes seven segments covering some of the most important topics in the Church today. Taken from many of our most powerful talks, these segments are sure to inspire you to set all afire for Christ and His Church.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MONTHLY BOOK STUDY: JULIAN OF NORWICH B. 1343

Julian is a fourteenth century mystic known for her positive theology written in her work: The Revelation of Divine Love. Many might be familiar with the writings of St. Faustina and her Chaplet of Divine Mercy, made popular by Pope St. John Paul II. Julian's work predates St. Faustina by 600 years.

Julian wrote in her Sixth Showing (or mystical vision):

God's love for us is so great that it surpasses the understanding of any living being. Not a creature in all of creation can know how completely and how sweetly and with what infinite tenderness he loves us. Only with his grace and his assistance can we persevere in spiritual contemplation and maintain the awe and wonder that arise in our hearts in response to the soaring, transcendent, immeasurable love that the almighty God, in his goodness, has for us.

Join me in reading the writings of Juliana over the next few months. We will meet once a month to discuss the assigned readings from her work. Her writings may give rise to questions, faith sharing and deeper insight into God's love for us and the beauty of our Christian life.

We will have our first meeting on Thursday, June 30 at 7PM in the Parish Center classroom. We meet once a month.

If there are a reasonable number of people who might prefer a morning time, arrangements can be made for that.

Price of the book will be $15.

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations,
the One God who is and was and always will be,
thy providence you willed that your Church
be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you.

Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ.

Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will,
that we may live in harmony.

Give us the grace to be united in truth
and freedom,

and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.

LECTIO DIVINA — PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES —

The Lectio Scripture Group that began during Lent will continue to meet monthly to pray with the Scriptures.

Anyone interested in joining are most welcome. The group will meet on the Fourth Monday of each month, at 10AM in the basement of St. Patrick Church.

Remember, Lectio is a spiritual practice of reading a Scripture and slowly extracting from it meaning for my life. Guido II (1114-1193), a Carthusian Monk, wrote of this practice and saw Lectio as a "four step ladder" that takes one to God. He directs us to read a text progressively, four times:
First reading: read the text. Second reading: meditate on the text, Third reading: pray on the text, Fourth reading: contemplate the text. It is a practice of taking the text ever deeper into our daily lives. Come and learn. Come join us.
Next gathering is June 27th. Questions? Please call Jerry Washko at 856-845-6944.

STEWARDSHIP FREEDOM

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." - Galatians 5:13

We like to celebrate that we are free to "live the good life." We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to Stewardship. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God's work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.
