Relativism Revisited

Awhile back I wrote about relativism and its dangers. I think it is a good time to revisit this issue, since it is truly one of the most critical ongoing cultural issues of our time.

Perhaps one of the easiest ways to describe relativism is the denial of objective, universal truth. That is, there are no moral rules that apply to all cultures or all people. Therefore no country, institution, (or person) should “impose” their (or his) moral rules on any other culture or person. On the surface this seems like it should make sense, since it seems to be a safeguard against tyranny. However, it is not. In fact, philosophically speaking, the idea of relativism is itself, a logical contradiction. For if there are no universal rules, how can a relativist tell me I’m wrong if I think there are? If he tries, the relativist would be committing the same error he is accusing me of... he would be trying to “impose” his universal “truth” on me!

But relativism is more than self contradictory, it also poses great spiritual risk. A person plagued by relativism can easily justify any behavior, no matter how much it violates God’s law, on the grounds that it was, “the right thing for me to do at the time and under those circumstances.” Just a short time before he was elected, Pope Benedict XVI (then Cardinal Ratzinger), reflected on relativism in a homily. He stated that,

“Every day new sects are born and we see realized what St. Paul says on the deception of men, on the cunning that tends to lead into error (cf. Ephesians 4:14). To have a clear faith, according to the creed of the Church, is often labeled as fundamentalism. While relativism, that is, allowing oneself to be carried about with every wind of “doctrine,” seems to be the only attitude that is fashionable. A dictatorship of relativism is being constituted that recognizes nothing as absolute and which only leaves the “I” and its whims as the ultimate measure.” “We have another measure: the Son of God, true man. He is the measure of true humanism. “Adult” is not a faith that follows the waves in fashion and the latest novelty. Adult and mature is a faith profoundly rooted in friendship with Christ. This friendship opens us to all that is good and gives us the measure to discern between what is true and what is false, between deceit and truth.”

There are universal objective norms. They have been written into the world and human nature upon creation by God. Just as there is an order of things in the physical world, so too is there an order in the moral world as well. I don’t know a relativist who would deny the universal existence of the force of gravity when standing on the edge of a cliff, yet at the same time the relativist would most certainly say that there is no universal moral norm against say, marital infidelity or some other moral law that God has given us. But in reality, jumping off the cliff or being unfaithful to one’s spouse or engaging in some immoral behavior all would entail great mortal risk, both physical and spiritual. To deny this is not reasonable.

As you can see from the Holy Father’s statement, the only sure way out of the mindset of relativism is to continually strive to develop one’s relationship to Christ, who identified himself as “the Way, the Truth, and the Life.” The closer we are to Jesus, the closer we are to Truth. As the heat of summer progresses, don’t forget to stay close to the Lord through daily family prayer, regular attendance at Sunday Mass, and participation in the sacraments of the Church, themselves encounters with Christ. Also, as a reminder, we have Eucharistic Adoration in St. Patrick’s on Mondays at 7:00PM and Fridays from after the 9:00AM Mass until 7:00PM, another great way to develop our relationship with our Lord.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations,
the One God who is and was and always will be,
in your providence you willed that your Church
be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants
who are persecuted for their faith in you.

Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ.

Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations
to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will,
that we may live in harmony.

Give us the grace to be united in truth
and freedom,

and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.

MONTHLY BOOK STUDY: JULIAN OF NORWICH B. 1343

Julian is a fourteenth century mystic known for her positive theology written in her work: The Revelation of Divine Love. Many might be familiar with the writings of St. Faustina and her Chaplet of Divine Mercy, made popular by Pope St. John Paul II. Julian's work predates St. Faustina by 600 years.

Join me in reading the writings of Juliana over the next few months. We will meet once a month to discuss the assigned readings from her work. Her writings may give rise to questions, faith sharing and deeper insight into God's love for us and the beauty of our Christian life.

Our meeting meeting is on Thursday, July 28 at 7PM in the Parish Center classroom. We meet once a month.

LECTIO DIVINA — PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES —

The Lectio Scripture Group that began during Lent will continue to meet monthly to pray with the Scriptures.

Anyone interested in joining are most welcome. The group will meet on the Fourth Monday of each month, at 10AM in the basement of St. Patrick Church.

Remember, Lectio is a spiritual practice of reading a Scripture and slowly extracting from it meaning for my life. Guido II (1114-1193), a Carthusian Monk, wrote of this practice and saw Lectio as a "four step ladder" that takes one to God. He directs us to read a text progressively, four times: First reading: read the text. Second reading: mediate on the text, Third reading: pray on the text, Fourth reading: contemplate the text. It is a practice of taking the text ever deeper into our daily lives. Come and learn. Come join us. Next gathering is July 25th. Questions? Please call Jerry Washko at 856-845-6944.

RCIA begins after each Easter season with a rolling open enrollment and continues to the following Easter season. The process is also available for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of First Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

SAINT IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA: SOLDIER FOR CHRIST

At the end of this week, we celebrate the feast of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the "Soldier for Christ." While Martin Luther's interior troubles plunged Europe into a maelstrom of controversy, Ignatius of Loyola set out on an extraordinary interior pilgrimage of grace. Taught directly by God, Ignatius offered the Church a new spirituality of devoted service to Christ and founded a religious order dedicated to evangelization, the Jesuits.
