August 15th and other Holy Days

August 15th is the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary. Generally, it is a Holy Day of Obligation. But this year, the feast falls on a Monday and therefore the requirement to attend Mass is lifted. Since this is an important feast day of the Church, and even though not a holy Day of Obligation this year, we will be offering an additional Mass at 7:00pm on Monday, August 15th, to celebrate Our Lady's assumption, body and soul, into heaven. I do hope as many of you as possible will take a bit of extra time out of your busy schedules to honor the blessed Mother and worship her Son as we celebrate this beautiful feast day of our Faith.

This might be a good time to go into a little of the history of Holy Days in general.

From very early on the Church recognized the value of observing certain feast days that commemorate an event connected to the life of Christ, the Virgin Mary, other saints or important moments in the Church. Often, these celebrations were instituted by a local bishop and observed only locally.

Over time, some of these, because of their connection to salvation history, became required celebrations throughout the universal Church. The official list is found in the Code of Canon Law (the legal code of the Church) Canon No. 1246. It reads, “§1. Sunday, on which by apostolic tradition the paschal mystery is celebrated, must be observed in the universal Church as the primordial holy day of obligation. The following days must also be observed: the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Epiphany, the Ascension, the Body and Blood of Christ, Holy Mary the Mother of God, her Immaculate Conception, her Assumption, Saint Joseph, Saint Peter and Saint Paul the Apostles, and All Saints. §2. With the prior approval of the Apostolic See, however, the conference of bishops can suppress some of the holy days of obligation or transfer them to a Sunday.”

The US Bishops have petitioned the Vatican for permission to revise the Holy Day regulations in the United States from time to time, moving some of the Holy Days to Sunday (Epiphany, the Ascension (just recently in our area), The Body and Blood of Christ). Even though still Solemnities, the feasts of Saint Joseph, Saint Peter and Saint Paul the Apostles are no longer Holy Days of Obligation. Others, if falling on a Monday or Saturday are not Holy Days of Obligations.

The Holy Day regulations for the United States are the following:

The Holy Day regulations for the United States are the following:

In addition to Sunday, the days to be observed as holy days of obligation in the Latin Rite dioceses of the United States of America, in conformity with Canon 1246, are as follows:

January 1, the solemnity of Mary, Mother of God;

August 15, the solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary;

November 1, the solemnity of All Saints;

December 8, the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception;

December 25, the solemnity of the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Whenever January 1, the solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, or August 15, the solemnity of the Assumption, or November 1, the solemnity of All Saints, falls on a Saturday or on a Monday, the precept to attend Mass is abrogated (i.e. not required).

I hope this explanation of Holy Days was helpful to you.

God Bless you,
Father Byerley

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations,
the One God who is and was and always will be,
in your providence you willed that your Church
be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you.

Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ.

Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will,
that we may live in harmony.

Give us the grace to be united in truth
and freedom,

and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Persecuted Christians, pray for us.

Lectio Divina

LECTIO DIVINA — PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES —

The Lectio Scripture Group that began during Lent will continue to meet monthly to pray with the Scriptures.

Anyone interested in joining are most welcome. The group will meet on the Fourth Monday of each month, at 10AM in the basement of St. Patrick Church.

Remember, Lectio is a spiritual practice of reading a Scripture and slowly extracting from it meaning for my life. Guido II (1114-1193), a Carthusian Monk, wrote of this practice and saw Lectio as a “four step ladder” that takes one to God. He directs us to read a text progressively, four times:
First reading: read the text. Second reading: mediate on the text, Third reading: pray on the text, Fourth reading:
contemplate the text. It is a practice of taking the text ever deeper into our daily lives. Come and learn. Come join us.
Next gathering is Aug 22nd. Questions? Please call Jerry Washko at 856-845-6944.

MONTHLY BOOK STUDY: JULIAN OF NORWICH B. 1343

Julian is a fourteenth century mystic known for her positive theology written in her work: The Revelation of Divine Love.
Many might be familiar with the writings of St. Faustina and her Chaplet of Divine Mercy, made popular by Pope St. John Paul II. Julian's work predates St. Faustina by 600 years.

Join me in reading the writings of Juliana over the next few months. We will meet once a month to discuss the assigned readings from her work. Her writings may give rise to questions, faith sharing and deeper insight into God's love for us and the beauty of our Christian life.

Our meeting is on Thursday, Aug 25th at 7PM in the Parish Center classroom. We meet once a month.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is a sacramental process that prepares adults to be received into the Catholic Church. Persons who complete the process receive the sacraments of Baptism (if not yet baptized), First Eucharist, and Confirmation.

RCIA begins after each Easter season with a rolling open enrollment and continues to the following Easter season. The process is also available for Catholics who have never received the sacraments of First Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

For more information, please contact Deacon Vince at dvlatini@outlook.com or 609-932-6170.

WATCH

EDITH STEIN: THE SEVENTH CHAMBER

During this very special week for the Augustine Institute, we celebrate both our patron, St. Augustine, and his mother, St. Monica! As a preeminent Doctor of the Church, Augustine has been said to be "the holiest of the wise and the wisest of the holy." To celebrate this great Church Father, please enjoy Augustine: A Voice for all Generations!

LEARN

FORMED NOW: MARTYRS AND MONASTICS

We celebrate many martyrs and monastics during this rich week in the liturgical calendar. But how did the Church become a place of heroic martyrdom and steadfast monasticism? In this video, Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein to discuss these themes and their history in the early Church.

LISTEN

15 THINGS TO DO IN THE MIDST OF SUFFERING
BY JEFF CAVINS

The Church celebrates the feast of St. Maximilian Kolbe this week. Kolbe, a Polish Catholic priest, fearlessly suffered the horrors of Auschwitz, where he was eventually martyred because of his faith. The life of this Saint reminds us that suffering is a mystery we all face at many points in our lives. In this talk, internationally known speaker Jeff Cavins shares his insights on this difficult topic and shows us how our suffering can become redemptive.

Thursday, August 18th, 7:00pm
St. Patrick's Church Basement

You may have heard that Mother Teresa went to Confession at least once a week. Why would someone who was a Saint have to go to confession so often?

In this session, we will learn what happens during the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This beautiful Sacrament of Mercy is so much more than the forgiveness of sin. How can you make a better confession? We will also go over a deeper Examination of Conscience. For more information contact Brenda at olvbquinn@aol.com or 856-534-0400. Light refreshments will be provided.

LIFE AND JUSTICE REPORT

Last year, Holy Angels made 4,383 PB&J sandwiches for the homeless at Joseph's House in Camden. These sandwiches represent the work of the youth group, service projects and a faithful group of about six families that regularly contribute sandwiches. Last year our contribution was about 365 sandwiches a month. This year, so far, we are contributing approximately 541 sandwiches per month! Thank You for your charity. If you would like to join the PB&J club, call me for details.

I do not want to forget all those who contribute the Casseroles used at Joseph's House. Jerry Campbell does a great job in coordinating that project.

Anne Connor continues to work hard on the Pro-Life aspect of social justice and John Carlucci of the Knights of Columbus keeps abreast of legal issues in the State that may contain important matters that pertain to Catholic Social Teachings. The Knights had been collecting diapers to help our young mothers.

Your contributions to our St. Vincent de Paul Society are also very appreciated. Society members work silently but persistently with the heart break issues that engage families and individuals in our community, whether parishioners or not.

Our Food Pantry has been a great blessing all through the Covid experience for many and continues to deliver to those haunted by lack of food. Your weekly contribution of a food item is a great help in feeding those not so fortunate. Remember to bring at least one food item when you come to church. If you check the website (www.gwcm.org) you can see what items, the Pantry might be especially needing.

Faith without action, St. James says, is useless. It is our deeds that put our faith into action, that makes our faith visible and alive.
