Genuflection

In the celebration of Mass we raise our hearts, minds and voices in worship of God. As creatures composed of body and spirit, our prayer is not confined to our minds and hearts, but is expressed by our bodies as well. When our bodies participate in our prayer, we pray with our whole person, as the unity of body and soul God created us to be.

During Mass we assume different postures: standing, kneeling, sitting, and we are also invited to make a variety of gestures. These postures and gestures are not merely ceremonial; they are ways in which we engage our bodies in prayer. Postures and gestures in Mass and prayer have deep meaning and, when done with intent with understanding, they help us to be more focused on our prayer and more receptive to God's grace and love.

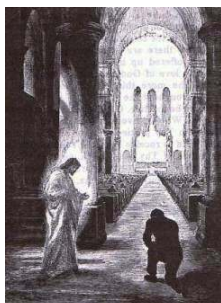

Because of this, the profound importance of a simple genuflection can now be appreciated. A genuflection is the action begun from a standing position in which a worshiper drops the right knee briefly to the floor, and then stands upright again. Most people naturally bow their head while performing this action; some make the sign of the cross. Some hold onto a nearby pew for physical support. A genuflection is not merely some ancient ritualistic movement; its purpose is to allow the worshiper to engage his whole person in acknowledging the presence of and to honor Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

Here at Holy Angels the tabernacle containing our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is found in the center at the back part of the sanctuary in both of our churches. We are all asked, required in fact by Church law, to make a genuflection toward the tabernacle before entering and after leaving our seat as a way of affirming and strengthening their faith in the presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. It is also a fitting way to show honor, love, and devotion to our Lord. One should note that according to the Church's liturgical guidelines a bow is only to be used if we are carrying an object. A bow is not a replacement for a genuflection, unless one cannot physically genuflect.

Although genuflection towards the Lord in the tabernacle unfortunately doesn't seem to be stressed or encouraged as much as in the past, it is still the "rule" and explicitly part of who we are as Catholics. And when understood properly, it is also a vital gesture that shows the Lord we believe He is present and gives Him the honor due to Him as our Savior.

As we begin in the Church in the United States a "Eucharistic Revival" in order to combat the loss of faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist, rediscovering the meaning and value of genuflection might assist us in our own personal revival as well as in the Church. May we take every opportunity to show the Lord we believe in His presence by reverently genuflecting as we enter and leave the Church and whenever we cross in front of the tabernacle. It would certainly be appropriate at the same time, to say a word or two of prayer to the Lord acknowledging our faith in His abiding presence in the Most Holy Eucharist

God Bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

Lectio

LECTIO DIVINA — PRAYING THE SCRIPTURES —

The Lectio Scripture Group that began during Lent will continue to meet monthly to pray with the Scriptures.

Anyone interested in joining are most welcome. The group meets on the Fourth Monday of each month, at 10AM in the basement of St. Patrick Church.

Remember, Lectio is a spiritual practice of reading a Scripture and slowly extracting from it meaning for my life. Guido II (1114-1193), a Carthusian Monk, wrote of this practice and saw Lectio as a “four step ladder” that takes one to God. He directs us to read a text progressively, four times:
First reading: read the text. Second reading: mediate on the text, Third reading: pray on the text, Fourth reading:
contemplate the text. It is a practice of taking the text ever deeper into our daily lives. Come and learn. Come join us.
Next gathering is Monday, Sept 26th. Questions?
Call Jerry Washko at 856-845-6944.

MONTHLY BOOK STUDY: JULIAN OF NORWICH B. 1343

Julian is a fourteenth century mystic known for her positive theology written in her work: The Revelation of Divine Love.
Many might be familiar with the writings of St. Faustina and her Chaplet of Divine Mercy, made popular by Pope St. John Paul II. Julian's work predates St. Faustina by 600 years.

Join me in reading the writings of Juliana over the next few months. We meet once a month to discuss the assigned readings from her work. Her writings may give rise to questions, faith sharing and deeper insight into God's love for us and the beauty of our Christian life.

Next meeting: Thursday, Sept 22nd at 7PM
in the Parish Center classroom.

Questions? Contact: Jerry Washko at 856-845-6944 or email:

CASSEROLES

Joseph's HOUSE is a homeless shelter for men and women located in the city of Camden.

We will deliver casseroles and goods to Joseph's HOUSE
this month on Monday September 12th, as Labor Day falls on the first Monday of month.

Due to vacations, inflationary pressure on cost of goods, and an increase in the number of clients at the JH as a result of the drop in the number of Covid cases, we reached a low water mark in our delivery program in August.

Your support is vital to this program's success and is deeply appreciated. Because of the success here in Gloucester County, we will initiate a program at St. Rose in Haddon Hts., beginning mid-September.

PRAYER FOR PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

O God of all the nations, the One God who is and was and always will be, in your providence you willed that your Church be united to the suffering of your Son.

Look with mercy on your servants who are persecuted for their faith in you. Grant them perseverance and courage to be worthy imitators of Christ. Bring your wisdom upon leaders of nations to work for peace among all peoples.

May your Spirit open conversion for those who contradict your will, that we may live in harmony. Give us the grace to be united in truth and freedom, and to always seek your will in our lives.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
