The Power of Silence

Cardinal Robert Sarah is a bishop from the Republic of Guinea in western Africa. He was the prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, appointed by Pope Francis on 23 November 2014 until he retired at age 75 in 2021. Cardinal Sarah is also a wonderful and profound author. One of his books, The Power of Silence: Against the Dictatorship of Noise is a wonderful example of the Cardinal's writing talent.

In this book, which I highly recommend, The Cardinal offers a beautiful reflection on silence. When asked why the Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship, who is in charge of reports and issues that deal very concretely with the life of the Church, would write a book on the importance of silence, the Cardinal gave this response....

“God’s first language is silence.” In commenting on this beautiful, rich insight of Saint John of the Cross, Thomas Keating, in his work Invitation to Love, writes: “Everything else is a poor translation. In order to understand this language, we must learn to be silent and to rest in God.”

It is time to rediscover the true order of priorities. It is time to put God back at the center of our concerns, at the center of our actions and of our life: the only place that He should occupy. Thus, our Christian journey will be able to gravitate around this Rock, take shape in the light of the faith and be nourished in prayer, which is a moment of silent, intimate encounter in which a human being stands face to face with God to adore Him and to express his filial love for Him.

Let us not fool ourselves. This is the truly urgent thing: to rediscover the sense of God. Now the Father allows Himself to be approached only in silence. What the Church needs most today is not an administrative reform, another pastoral program, a structural change. The program already exists: it is the one we have always had, drawn from the Gospel and from living Tradition. It is centered on Christ Himself, whom we must know, love and imitate in order to live in Him and through Him, to transform our world which is being degraded because human beings live as though God did not exist. As a priest, as a pastor, as a Prefect, as a Cardinal, my priority is to say that God alone can satisfy the human heart.

I think that we are the victims of the superficiality, selfishness and worldly spirit that are spread by our media-driven society. We get lost in struggles for influence, in conflicts between persons, in a narcissistic, vain activism. We swell with pride and pretention, prisoners of a will to power. For the sake of titles, professional or ecclesiastical duties, we accept vile compromises. But all that passes away like smoke.

In my book I wanted to invite Christians and people of good will to enter into silence; without it, we are in illusion. The only reality that deserves our attention is God Himself, and God is silent. He waits for our silence to reveal Himself. Regaining the sense of silence is therefore a priority, an urgent necessity.”

Possessing the sense of silence is an absolute necessity in being able to maintain and develop our relationship with the Lord. In our current world saturated as it is with noise of all kinds, silence doesn't come about naturally. We have to make a conscience choice to disconnect from the digital noise in the world and connect to the Lord in silence. For the sake of our spiritual wellbeing we must do this every day. Perhaps a good way to start, aside from making sure we are giving time for silent prayer each day, is to pick up a copy of the Cardinal's book and spend some time daily to read a few pages or so.

God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley

STEPHEN MINISTRY

It's Okay to Be Human . . .

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. We tend to think that if we ask for help, it's a sign of weakness. So we try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside.

However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need.

If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. We've got a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, and help you through a tough time. Men are matched with men, and women with women. (It's completely confidential too!)

To find out more about Stephen Ministry for you or someone you know, talk with one of our Stephen Ministry Leaders:

Karen Partridge, 609-970-7550.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

CANONICAL CORONATION ST. MARY OF MOUNT CARMEL PARISH HAMMONTON, NJ

To commemorate the 150th Anniversary, a Canonical Coronation has been granted by Papal decree, a rare and profound honor bestowed by the authority of Pope Frances. He has recognized the longstanding tradition of the Mt. Carmel Procession of the Mount Carmel Society! The coronation will be celebrated by Bishop Joseph A. Williams during the 2:00PM Our Lady of Mount Carmel Society Mass on the Feast Day, July 16th, as he crowns the Baby Jesus in honor of Our Lady.

A canonical coronation is a formal act by the Pope, expressed through papal bull (public decree), to crown a venerated image of Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary, or St. Joseph. This act acknowledges the images local and universal significance within the Catholic Church. This is a rare honor for the church and our diocese. In the United States, only four Marian images have received this honor.

1. Our Lady of Prompt Succor
Crowned on November 10, 1895 in New Orleans, LA
2. Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Crowned on July 10, 1904 in New York City, NY
3. Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception
Crowned on August 22, 2013 in Lake Charles, LA
4. Our Lady of La Leche
Crowned on October 10, 2021 at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine in Florida
