Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Tuesday we will celebrate the assumption of Mary into heaven. As the sinless mother of God, no stain of mortal corruption was to touch her body. Immediately at her death, she was taken up to her reward of eternal glory and to be again at the side of Jesus. From there, she continues to intercede for us, offering her prayers and encouragement for her children below that we may one day join her and her Divine Son for ever. Below is part of a beautiful sermon on the Dormition of Mary by St. John Damascene (A.D. 676 - 754/787). Its language is much more exalted than we are used to, so read it slowly, ponder it, savor it. I think it will be well worth the time invested.

PLEASE NOTE: Tuesday is a Holy Day of Obligation this year and we are obliged to attend Mass. Missing Mass without a serious reason is a serious (mortal sin). There is a 7:00PM Vigil Mass on Monday, August 14th, and on August 15th Masses are at 6:45AM, 9:00AM, 12:10PM and 7:00PM.

*God bless you,
Father Joseph Byerley*

"Today the holy Virgin of Virgins is presented in the heavenly temple. Virginity in her was so strong as to be a consuming fire. It is forfeited in every case by child-birth. But she is ever a virgin, before the event, in the birth itself, and afterwards. To-day the sacred and living ark of the living God, who conceived her Creator Himself, takes up her abode in the temple of God, not made by hands. David, her forefather, rejoices. Angels and Archangels are in jubilation, Powers exult, Principalities and Dominations, Virtues and Thrones are in gladness: Cherubim and Seraphim magnify God. Not the least of their Praise is it to refer praise to the Mother of glory. To-day the holy dove, the pure and guileless soul, sanctified by the Holy Spirit, putting off the ark of her body, the life-giving receptacle of Our Lord, found rest to the soles of her feet, taking her flight to the spiritual world, and dwelling securely in the sinless country above. To-day the Eden of the new Adam receives the true paradise, in which sin is remitted and the tree of life growl, and our nakedness is covered. For we are no longer naked and uncovered, and unable to bear the splendour of the divine likeness. Strengthened with the abundant grace of the Spirit, we shall no longer betray our nakedness in the words: "I have Put off my garment, how shall I put it on?" The serpent, by whose deceitful promise we were likened to brute beasts, did not enter into this paradise. He, the only begotten Son of God, God himself, of the same substance as the Father, took His human nature of the pure Virgin. Being constituted a man, He made mortality immortal, and was clothed as a man. Putting aside corruption, He was indued with the incorruptibility of the Godhead.

Today the spotless Virgin, untouched by earthly affections, and all heavenly in her thoughts, was not dissolved in earth, but truly entering heaven, dwells in the heavenly tabernacles. Who would be wrong to call her heaven, unless indeed he truly said that she is greater than heaven in surpassing dignity? The Lord and Creator of heaven, the Architect of all things beneath the earth and above, of creation, visible and invisible, Who is not circumvented by place (if that which surrounds things is rightly termed place), created Himself, without human co-operation, an Infant in her. He made her a rich treasure-house of His all-pervading and alone uncircumscribed Godhead, subsisting entirely in her without passion, remaining entire in His universality and Himself uncircumscribed. To-day the life-giving treasury and abyss of charity (I know not how to trust my lips to speak of it) is hidden in immortal death. She meets it without fear, who conceived death's destroyer, if indeed we may call her holy and vivifying departure by the name of death. For how could she, who brought life to all, be under the dominion of death? But she obeys the law of her own Son, and inherits this chastisement as a daughter of the first Adam, since her Son, who is the life, did not refuse it. As the Mother of the living God, she goes through death to Him. For if God said: "Unless the first man put out his hand to take and taste of the tree of life, he shall live for ever," how shall she, who received the Life Himself, without beginning or end, or finite vicissitudes, not live for ever."

In spiritual union with our Blessed Founder, our Congregation expresses cordial thanks to you, Dear Father Byerley, for your gracious welcome and encouragement during Sister Romana and my mission awareness appeal last weekend. We are also grateful to Monsignor Scott and Father Dudo for their support.

It was a blessing to be with the parishioners at St Patrick's Church and also from St. Matthew's Church in National Park, where Sister Romana taught at the school there and was happy to meet a teacher, some parents and a past pupil with a good memory of some of the truths she taught in word and song.

We appreciate their prayers and generous support of our worldwide missions.

How good to see your large flock of faithful worshipers at the Holy Masses and your bulletin gives evidence of many activities.

Devotedly yours in Jesus, Mary, Joseph,

*"Hear my voice, Lord, when I call;
be merciful to me and answer me." -- Ps 27:7*

Don't be afraid to call out to the Lord

Reflection:

When we have an opportunity to meet dignitaries and important people, we practice how we will address them and will rehearse a few lines so we don't appear foolish. While there is no one more important than God, He asks us to call out to Him. St. Peter cried out once, "Lord, save me!" and that was enough for Jesus to save him.

Prayer:

Lord, may the prayer of my heart reach your Sacred Heart.

Are you registered at Holy Angels Parish? Have you changed your phone number? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Are older children, age 25+, living home and registered separately? Are you receiving envelopes or signing up for electronic giving?

Please call the Parish office to update registration information. Registration forms are also available at the Parish Office, in the vestibules of Church, or can be downloaded from our website: www.holyangelsnj.org.

**All sacramental records for St. Patrick, St. Matthew and Most Holy Redeemer are kept at Holy Angels Parish office.

Life for Life: Maximilian Kolbe

After escaping from Auschwitz, a man hears the tragic news about ten random inmates sentenced by the Nazis to death as a punishment for his escape—one of whom is Fr. Maximilian Kolbe.

A Bible Study on the Glorious Mysteries: Assumption (Part 4 of 5)

What do you know about the Assumption? Join Dr. John Sehorn and Taylor Kemp as they discuss the theology behind this dogma of the faith.

Saint Maximilian Kolbe | Lukas Storyteller

Inspired by the heroic life of St. Maximilian Kolbe, Lukas helps his friends understand that they should always be grateful for what they have.
