LEADER: We gather here to celebrate the Lord's Day. Sunday has been called the Lord's Day because it was on this day that Jesus conquered sin and death and rose to new life. While we are not able to celebrate Mass today and receive Holy Communion, let us be united in the Spirit of Christ with the Church around the world as we celebrate our redemption in Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection.

All make the sign of the cross as leader continues:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen

LEADER: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Blessed be God forever.

ALL: Blessed be God forever.

LEADER: Let us Pray.

All pray in silence for a short time, then leader continues:

Praise to you, O God, our Father, for you give us this first day of the week to restore our hope, to refresh our spirits, and inspire us for works of mercy, charity, and apostolic service.

On this day that belongs to you, we recall in faith that day when Christ rose from the dead; and with great fervor we look forward to the future of Christ's return.

May our gathering this day lead us to a deeper solidarity of faith and a profound sense of gratitude for the grace of our Baptism. May our prayer lead us to a love for the poor, a greater respect for the dignity of human life, and the liberation of the oppressed. As we remember the resurrection of your Christ, may we receive the life-giving breath of the Holy Spirit, so that we might be effective witnesses of Gospel.

To you belong all glory and honor and power both now and forever.

Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The readings and psalm are those assigned for the day in the Lectionary for Mass.

Visit <https://bible.usccb.org> for the readings for February 14.

FIRST READING: The First Reading is proclaimed by someone other than the leader. Begin with "A reading from the Book of Leviticus" and close with "The Word of the Lord."

THE RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 32) is sung or read.

SECOND READING: The second reading is proclaimed by someone other than the leader. Begin with "A reading from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians..." and close with "The Word of the Lord."

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

If not sung, omit and leader continues with Gospel.

CANTOR: Alleluia! (Sing a favorite version of the Alleluia, and have all repeat)
"A great prophet has arisen in our midst, God has visited his people."

GOSPEL: The Gospel is proclaimed by the leader. Begin with “A reading from the Holy Gospel According to Mark” and conclude with “The Gospel of the Lord.”

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS: Parish Catechetical Leaders can be consulted for appropriate materials and sources for reflection and sharing on the readings. The following options for reflection are provided but can be adapted as necessary by parishes. In addition, the pastor may wish to provide a homily which can be played or read by the leader at this time.

1. LECTIO DIVINA (for more background and information on this type of prayer visit www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions)

Take a passage or a short phrase from one of the readings that stood out to you. Place yourself in the story. As you repeat the phrase, meditate on the people and the actions of the story. Have the leader read the Gospel again if necessary.

Meditate on what this phrase means to you at this point in your life.

Share your personal response to the text: Allow everyone to simply share their thoughts and feelings about what the text means to them. Dialogue and converse about each other’s responses after the prayer service over a meal.

Take time in silence to personally encounter how God has touched you and those you are with through your meditation on this passage.

2. QUESTION(S) OF THE WEEK

Share together some or all of the following questions based on the scriptures:

LEVITICUS: Who are the individuals or groups in your community that are isolated or ostracized due to fear?

PSALM: Where have you recently experienced joy in the midst of sorrow?

CORINTHIANS: This week, how can you glorify God in your service to God and neighbor?

MARK: How can you respond as a Christian when laws, rules, or restrictions seem to stand in the way of compassion?

After the reflections or sharing, a period of sacred silence for further meditation on the readings may be observed.

If there are catechumens or elect present, after the silence, continue breaking open the Word of God if necessary to conclude the celebration (Parish RCIA Coordinators will be helpful with providing additional materials to facilitate this) and then close with the Concluding Rite

PROFESSION OF FAITH: Recite either the Nicene Creed or the Apostles' Creed

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

READER: For the Church, strengthened in the kindness and empathy of God, that in imitation of Jesus we may be a community where all are welcome to worship in joy and peace ...

READER: For those who suffer from a disease or condition that prevents them from fully participating in a community ...

READER: For medical workers throughout the world; For all those who place themselves at risk in service to others, that they may be protected and renewed in mind, body, and spirit...

READER: For married couples, that they may grow each day in love and respect for one another...

READER: For our parish community, that we may comfort and support those who suffer in relationships that have become strained or fractured ...

READER: For those who have died, especially all victims of COVID-19, and for (mention any names...), to be gathered into paradise by Jesus, lover of our souls ...

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

ALL: Jesus, I know and believe in your real presence in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist. It is you I desire to love and receive above all things. ACT OF THANKSGIVING

The act of thanksgiving may be a song, hymn, psalm, canticle, or litany. See music choices above. Parish music directors may advise their communities on additional appropriate choices within parish repertoire for the season.
