LEADER: We gather here to celebrate the Lord's Day. Sunday has been called the Lord's Day because it was on this day that Jesus conquered sin and death and rose to new life. While we are not able to celebrate Mass today and receive Holy Communion, let us be united in the Spirit of Christ with the Church around the world as we celebrate our redemption in Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection.

All make the sign of the cross as leader continues:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen

LEADER: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Blessed be God forever.

ALL: Blessed be God forever.

LEADER: Let us Pray.

All pray in silence for a short time, then leader continues:

Blessed are you, Father, Holy, and Divine Creator. All creation comes from your hand; the entire universe bears the imprint of your goodness. You call us not only to inhabit the earth, but also to build it and thus become your co-workers.

You give us a Sabbath day of rest when men and women everywhere raise their song to you and become the voice of all creation. What you accomplished in creation and wrought for your people in the Exodus has found its fullest expression in Christ's death and resurrection. And so we remember on this first day of the week the salvation which you have given us in baptism and which has made us a new creation in Christ.

In these Advent days when we prepare for the coming of the Lord in glory and the celebration of his birth into the human family, we pray, O God, that you would remove from our hearts whatever might hinder us from receiving Christ with joy.

We praise you, Almighty God and Father, for there is no greater power that saves and no greater love and mercy, than that which comes from you through your Son, Jesus Christ, in communion with the Holy Spirit, both now and forever.

Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

The readings and psalm are those assigned for the day in the Lectionary for Mass.

Visit <https://bible.usccb.org> for the readings for December 6.

FIRST READING: The First Reading is proclaimed by someone other than the leader. Begin with "A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah" and close with "The Word of the Lord."

THE RESPONSORIAL PSALM: The Responsorial Psalm (85) is sung or read.

SECOND READING: The second reading is proclaimed by someone other than the leader. Begin with “A reading from the Second Letter of St. Peter...” and close with “The Word of the Lord.”

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

If not sung, omit and leader continues with Gospel.

CANTOR: Alleluia! (Sing a favorite version of the Alleluia, and have all repeat)

CANTOR: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths; all flesh shall see the salvation of God.” (All: Alleluia!)

GOSPEL: The Gospel is proclaimed by the leader. Begin with “A reading from the Holy Gospel According to Mark” and conclude with “The Gospel of the Lord.”

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS: Parish Catechetical Leaders can be consulted for appropriate materials and sources for reflection and sharing on the readings. The following options for reflection are provided but can be adapted as necessary by parishes. In addition, the pastor may wish to provide a homily which can be played or read by the leader at this time.

1. LECTIO DIVINA (for more background and information on this type of prayer visit www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions)

Take a passage or a short phrase from one of the readings that stood out to you. Place yourself in the story. As you repeat the phrase, meditate on the people and the actions of the story. Have the leader read the Gospel again if necessary.

Meditate on what this phrase means to you at this point in your life.

Share your personal response to the text: Allow everyone to simply share their thoughts and feelings about what the text means to them. Dialogue and converse about each other’s responses after the prayer service over a meal.

Take time in silence to personally encounter how God has touched you and those you are with through your meditation on this passage.

2. QUESTION(S) OF THE WEEK

Share together some or all of the following questions based on the scriptures:

ISAIAH: What mountains and/or valleys need attention in your own life?

PSALM: What is the place of truth in the spiritual life?

PETER: What insights can you gain when considering what kind of person God wants you to be?

MARK: Where in your life are you in need of the Holy Spirit's animation?

After the reflections or sharing, a period of sacred silence for further meditation on the readings may be observed.

If there are catechumens or elect present, after the silence, continue breaking open the Word of God if necessary to conclude the celebration (Parish RCIA Coordinators will be helpful with providing additional materials to facilitate this) and then close with the Concluding Rite

PROFESSION OF FAITH: Recite either the Nicene Creed or the Apostles' Creed
